EASE Foundation:

A food pantry serving Broward County. EASE's purpose is to aid those qualified residents, on a one time basis, that are in need of temporary emergency assistance. Their objective is to help those in need to ease their way back into a self-sustaining, productive life. Their focus is to prevent homelessness, but we also reach out to the homeless with food, clothing and hygiene supplies. Requirements include: SSC, driver's license, utility bill, appointment, and an economic need for food assistance. Contact Linda Owen.

Gateway Community Church:

Services offer the provision of food, either weekly or bi-weekly, to those who are hungry. Volunteer interviewers meet with clients and complete intake forms that help identify the services that may be needed. We provide food immediately, and at some sites we provide clothing that has been donated. Food satellites are in the following cities: Coral Springs, Davie, Deerfield Beach, Green Acres (Palm Beach), Lauderdale, and Pompano. We serve the less fortunate throughout Gateway's eight satellites centers in Broward County and Palm Beach County.
