

Item: SP: I-6

STRATEGIC PLANNING COMMITTEE

Wednesday, April 25, 2007

SUBJECT: REVIEW OF EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

PROPOSED COMMITTEE ACTION

None

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Florida Atlantic University's Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan is a multi-hazard basic plan that is intended as the comprehensive framework for university wide mitigation, preparedness, including preplanning training drills, response and recovery activities to an emergency or disaster whether natural or man-made. This plan underscores the functional responsibilities incumbent upon the University divisions and departments including, providing qualified staff for the missions and defines the essential support functions required for continuity of operations.

IMPLEMENTATION PLAN/DATE

None

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

None

Supporting Documentation: None

Presented by: Tom Donaudy, University Architect & VP for Facilities

Phone: 561.297.0083