Course Description

This course examines strategies to design, manage, and deliver meaningful online learning experiences in K-12 learning environments. The practical skills and pedagogical principles to teach in K-12 online learning environments utilizing current and emerging learning technologies are explored.

Course Objectives/Student Learning Outcomes

Students will be able to do the following in an online learning environment:

- Describe effective strategies to communicate with students and parents
- Design clear and consistent course sites to support a digital classroom space
- Design lessons and assessments for online instruction (ISTE E 5,6,7)
- Create opportunities for students to responsibly participate in the digital world (ISTE E 3)
- Collaborate with colleagues and students to improve practice, discover, and share resources and ideas and solve problems (ISTE E 4)

COVID-19 Statement

All students in face-to-face classes are required to wear masks during class, and students must sanitize their own workstations upon entering the classroom. Taking these measures supports the safety and protection of the FAU community. Students who do not adhere to these rules will be asked to leave the classroom and/or be removed from the course. Students experiencing flu-like symptoms (fever, cough, shortness of breath), or students who have come in contact with an infected person should immediately contact FAU Student Health Services (561-297-3512).

Standards and Guidelines Used for Developing Course Objectives

International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) Standards for Educators

C+	79-81	= 2.33	F	Below 62	= 0.00

Policy on Makeup Tests, Late Work, and Incompletes (if applicable)

Late work is accepted only under circumstances not under control of the student. Late work will be accepted no later than a week after the original due date and can typically earn no more than 50% of the points available. It is the student's responsibility to stay aware of all assignment due dates and to successfully submit all required work in a timely manner. Please note that any unavailability of Canvas immediately prior to an assigned due date is not an acceptable reason for late submission. Please ensure that all work is submitted in a timely manner, and it is STRONGLY recommended that you submit work in advance of due dates/times so as to limit any potential difficulties with system downtime (for maintenance, etc.).

Attendance Policy

This class is completely online with strong support in our learning management system. It will require most learners at least 8- 12 hours a week. Please log into the learning management system several times every week.

Classroom Etiquette Policy (if applicable)

Etiquette is an important factor in any classroom setting. In an online class, etiquette may be a greater consideration since much communication is enabled through written e-mails, blog postings, and so on. Written words carry all types of connotations (both intended and unintended) and therefore it is essential that you craft all written communication in a manner that is professional, polite, and clearly and accurately worded. Here are some basic ground rules for written communication: Core Rules of Netiquette

Disability Policy

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA), students who require reasonable accommodations due to a disability to properly execute coursework must register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) and follow all SAS procedures. SAS has offices across three of FAU's campuses – Boca Raton, Davie and Jupiter – however disability services are available for students on all campuses. For more information, please visit the SAS website at www.fau.edu/sas/.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Center

Life as a university student can be challenging physically, mentally and emotionally. Students who find stress negatively affecting their ability to achieve academic or personal goals may wish to consider utilizing FAU's Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Center. CAPS provides FAU students a range of services – individual counseling, support meetings, and psychiatric services, to name a few – offered to help improve and maintain emotional well-being. For more information, go to <http://www.fau.edu/counseling/>

Code of Academic Integrity

Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the university mission to provide a high-quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001.

Required Texts/Readings

No printed textbook is required for this course. Online resources will be used in support of assignment completion. Please see the course web site for both required readings and supplemental resources. In addition to an active FAU Canvas, you will also need a free Google account and a free online Microsoft account. You will also need access to specific software, all are available as a FAU student.
