A Major Decision: Making the Most of Your Explorations

Here at FAU, we prefer to call students who have not yet declared a major “Deciding Students”. Why? Because you’re actively uncovering new passions and discovering your interests! In doing so, you are exploring new academic and career possibilities.

How do I continue “Exploring”?

Consider these tips to make the most of your Exploratory Journey:

- Choose 2-3 Majors from FAU's full list of majors to commit to learn more about
- Review the Intellectual Foundations Program \(IFP\) Checklists for Majors You are Interested In
- Explore career paths for various majors using the “What Can I Do With This Major” tool through FAU’s Explore career paths for various majors using the “What Can I Do With this Major” tool through FAU’s Career Center
- Meet with an FAU Career Coach to explore career outcomes of your top major picks
- Schedule a meeting with a University Advising Services (UAS) academic advisor to select courses for Spring 2024 class through your Success Network powered by Navigate

PRO TIP!

Be sure to schedule a meeting with an Academic Advisor – we’ll be sure to help you choose courses that can help you succeed in a variety of majors!

Major Spotlight: Political Science

Are you passionate in understanding political and power systems in a variety of settings? Are you interested in learning more about the theory of justice, political thought, and comparative politics? Are you naturally inquisitive, a born leader, and adept at analytical thinking? Consider pursuing a degree in Political Science!

The College of Arts of Letters currently offers concentrations in:

- Global Studies
- Pre-Law

Schedule an appointment with an advisor to declare your major to Political Science!
