Thanks, Mike. Since this is already on the books, we have no objections. Kind regards, Ben

Ben,

Just FYI, Fewkes ordinarily teaches this at the HC and has a course number. We're putting this in through anthro so that we can cross-list it. We've done it three times already with the ANT 4930 designation, but the registrar won't list it again.

Sure thing, Mike. Let me run it by Ken Holloway, who heads up the Asian Studies program, and Eric Hanne. I'll get back to you soon.

Regards,

Ben

Subject: Anthro course

Hi Ben,

Anthro is seeking to add a new course, Intro to Asian Studies. The course is proposed by Jaqueline Fewkes, professor at the Honors College, but would be on the books in Anthropology as non-honors.

Let me know if History has any objections or questions.

Best, Mike
