

Pre-Collegiate Programs Office (PcPO)

LIST OF TERMS

DEFINITIONS

1. Children – individuals under the age of 18; when used herein refers to both the singular and the plural, i.e., child or children.
2. Participants – children participating in a program covered by the aforementioned Pre-Collegiate Programs (or Youth Programs) Policies and Procedures; when used herein refers to both the singular and the plural, i.e., participant or participants.
3. Youth Program – a program covered by the aforementioned Pre-Collegiate Programs (or Youth Programs) Policies and Procedures; when used herein refers to both the singular and the plural, i.e., youth program or youth programs.
4. Florida Atlantic University Affiliate – any individual, volunteer, or other non-employee actually or ostensibly acting on the behalf of Florida Atlantic University.
5. Florida Atlantic University Operating Standards for Youth Programs (hereinafter “Operating Standards”) – standards to which any Florida Atlantic University employee or affiliate who is or may be undertaking the custodial care of children must adhere.
6. Custodial Care – the responsibility for the supervision of children on a temporary basis for the purpose of the children engaging in the youth program.
7. Program Staff – any Florida Atlantic University employee or affiliate who has independent unsupervised access to children in a Youth Program or who could have independent unsupervised access to children in a Youth Program.
8. Visitors - any Florida Atlantic University employee or affiliate who does not have and who will not have independent unsupervised access to children in a youth program.
9. Emergency - A sudden and unforeseen situation demanding immediate remedy or action to preserve the imminent safety of the children in program staff’s custodial care.