To become a Peer Coach, students must meet the following:

- Completed 55+ credits with a 3.0+ overall GPA. Graduate students with a 3.0 are also eligible
- Completed a minimum of one semester at FAU
- Have a clean student conduct record
- Satisfy the University criminal background check
- Be available in Fall 2017 on Tuesdays 4-5:50pm and Thursdays 4-5:50pm for facilitating the SLS 1411 course, trainings and meetings
- Hold 4-6 hours of Peer Coaching each week?
- Be available to CONTINUE as a peer coach for 6-8 hours each week in the spring 2018 semester?

Peer Coach Benefits:
Undergraduate and Graduate students selected as JS coaches earn $9/hour (8-10 hours per week). For information about graduate students visit our application today!

- Gain valuable experience and build your resume as you not only coach a group of approximately 20 students, but co-facilitate a course*
- Participate in extensive training in alignment with nationally recognized mentor training certification programs.

* Peer Coaches co-facilitate SLS 1411: The Jump Start Experience in the fall semester. This 0-credit course helps first-year students learn success strategies while forming connections with other students, mentors, faculty & staff.

How do I become a Peer Coach for Fall 2017 and Spring 2018?

- Applications will be accepted and reviewed weekly until the 25 positions are filled. Early Action Recommended.
- No applications will be accepted after June 13th.
- Have two references complete the reference form (at least one from a faculty or staff member at FAU; the other can be from a previous employer or volunteer coordinator)
- Attend an in-person interview if selected.

Successful applicants will be required to complete the FAU Student Employment process including a background check, followed by MANDATORY participation at the Peer Coach Training: Monday-Saturday, August 14th-18th. In addition, it is a highly recommended that selected applicants attend the Jump Start Peer Coach Orientation on June 24th.

Peer Coaches MUST be available Tuesdays 4-5:50 pm and Thursdays 4-5:50pm throughout the fall term.

For More Information:

The Mentoring Project
Email: mentoring@fau.edu
Phone: 561.297.4809
Applications will be accepted and reviewed weekly until the 25 positions are filled.