LEADERSHIP AND HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT MINOR

Effective leadership, change management, and human resource planning and development are critical in today's competitive business environment. The minor in leadership and human resource development is designed to enhance students' personal leadership potential, capacity to implement organization change, and ability to organize and develop employees. Students examine contemporary leadership models, strategies for approaching organizational transformation, and employee intervention processes. The minor is for any student interested in leadership and human resource development in organizations. We request the new minor to be effective Fall, 2015.
