Bachelor of Arts with Major in Interdisciplinary Studies: Arts and Humanities (Minimum of 120 credits required)
In addition to the University and College requirements for admission and graduation, including the University foreign language graduation requirement, the requirements for the major in Interdisciplinary Studies: Arts and Humanities are as follows:
1. 39 credits; 30 must be upper division.
2. Students are required to choose, in consultation with an advisor, an area of concentration in which they earn 15-18 credits, with a minimum of 12 upper-division credits. Students must develop an approved plan of study with an advisor within their area of concentration. Students must seek advising and approval of a plan of study prior to or as they begin their program of study.
3. No more than 18 credits may be taken in any one discipline.
4. Must earn a "C" or better in all courses applied toward the major.
5. Courses in this degree may not count towards any other major or minor.
6. Students may be asked in their last semester to submit a portfolio of work from the major for the purposes of program assessment.

Students must choose an area of concentration and take courses from the following disciplines or interdisciplinary programs: Asian Studies; Caribbean and Latin American Studies; Classical Studies; Communication and Multimedia Studies;
English; Ethnic Studies; Film and Video Studies; History; Jewish Studies; Languages, Linguistics, and Comparative Literature; Music; Peace Studies; Philosophy; Theatre and Dance; Visual Arts and Art History; and Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies. The Program Director may approve appropriate courses from other disciplines.
