U.S. social security number is needed in order to match your record with required official documents (transcripts, test scores, and residency). If you are planning or seeking financial aid (FAFSA, Bright Futures, and Florida Prepaid), your U.S. social security number is required. Consistent with Section 119, Florida Statutes, FAU collects social security numbers only as specifically authorized by law or is necessary for the performance of our duties and responsibilities. Under the USC §60405, FAMIS makes it necessary for FAU to collect the social security number of every student. If a student refuses to disclose his or her social security number for the purpose, he or she may be subject to ROS penalties. The admissions office will assign you with a valid student number for the processing of your application.

Conduct

If your answer to any of the following is YES, provide a full explanation of the relevant facts by using the text boxes below. You are limited to 210 characters. You are required to supply this institution with copies of all official court/educational institution documents explaining the final disposition of the proceedings. Failure to provide this information will delay an admissions decision. Specific colleges or departments may require students to verify the information provided through official criminal background checks before admission or registration.

If your records have been expunged pursuant to applicable law, you are not required to answer yes to these questions. If you are unsure whether you should answer yes to either question, we strongly suggest that you answer yes and fully disclose all incidents. By doing so, you can avoid any risk of disciplinary action or revocation of an offer of admission.

You do not need to disclose academic dismissal, suspension, or probation for poor grades.

☐ Yes

☐ No

Have you ever been charged with a violation of the law, misdemeanor and/or felony (even if adjudication was withheld) which resulted in, or, if still pending could result in, probation; community service; restitution; a jail sentence or the revocation or suspension of your driver's license (you are not required to include traffic violations which only resulted in a fine)?

☐ Yes

☐ No

Residency

Information for Residency Classification

- A Florida "resident for tuition purposes" is a person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has, established and maintained legal residency in Florida for at least twelve consecutive months preceding the first day of classes of the term for which Florida residency is sought.
- Residence in Florida must be as a bona fide domicile rather than for the purpose of maintaining a residence incident to enrollment at an institution of higher education.
- To qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes, you must be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident alien, or legal alien granted indefinite stay by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. Other persons not meeting the twelve-month legal residence requirement may be classified as Florida residents for tuition purposes only if they fall within one of the limited special categories authorized by the Florida Legislature and State Board of Education. All other persons are ineligible for classification as a Florida "resident for tuition purposes".
- Living in or attending school in Florida will not, in itself, establish legal residence. Students who depend on out-of-state parents for support are presumed to be legal residents of the same state as their parents.
- Residency for tuition purposes requires the establishment of legal ties to the state of Florida. Students must verify that they have broken ties to other states if the student or, in the case for dependent students, his or her parent, has moved from another state.

Are you claiming Florida residency for tuition purposes?
- ○ I am NOT claiming Florida residency for tuition purposes.
- ● I am claiming Florida residency for tuition purposes.
