Call for Applications: Spring 2014 Agora Project Ambassadors
Deadline February 5, 2014

The Agora Project Ambassadors Program is an opportunity for students at Florida Atlantic University to make positive contributions to the university community by modeling respectful and engaged dialogue, by engaging in skill enrichment workshops and by promoting and supporting the endeavors of the Agora Project.

Students that successfully complete a semester of service as an Agora Ambassador will receive a letter of commendation for professional purposes as well as a $250 honorarium. The Agora Ambassador program is available to all students who have maintained an overall GPA of 2.5 or better and are in good university standing.

Students selected as Agora Ambassadors will be notified of their selection no later than February 10th.

Learning Outcomes for Agora Project Ambassadors:
- Ambassadors will enhance their communication and leadership development skills
- Ambassadors will learn team-building, conflict resolution and problem solving techniques essential to fostering safer, more respectful and more engaged cultures
- Ambassadors will learn promotion and marketing techniques as part of the larger effort to engage the university community about the Agora Project and its initiatives

Agora Project Ambassador Requirements and Expectations
- Attend ONE orientation session (approximately one hour) and no less than TWO skill enrichment sessions (each approximately 3 hours) over the course of the Spring 2014 semester
- Attend TWO Agora sponsored or co-sponsored events over the course of the Spring 2014 semester
- Model engaged, respectful and civil behavior in classrooms and throughout college communities
- Perform no less than 10 hours of service in the promotion of the Agora Project and/or its events and initiatives

To apply:
By no later than February 5, 2014 interested applicants should send the following to agoraproject@fau.edu or to Dr. William Trapani, Director of the Agora Project, CU 212, Boca Campus:
- A 1-2 page letter of interest that describes the applicant’s goals, relevant skills and experience and student’s interest in the program.
- Resume (including details on the student’s major, school, current or past involvement in university organizations and/or clubs, and social media “handles”/usernames).
- One letter of support from a member of the faculty, staff or administration
