

Art and Ritual in Asian Cultures

March 20-21, 2009

Student Services Building (SU 80)
Royal Palm Room, Second Floor
Boca Raton Campus

Art and ritual empower individuals to communicate their innermost sentiments across temporal, spatial, and social boundaries. As societies use art and ritual to shape our bodily comportment and mental experience, so social life is reciprocally sustained, enriched, and transformed through artistic and ritual means. An international group of distinguished scholars will explore these themes in Asian cultures, both ancient and contemporary.
