

Awards and Honors for History MA students

1. Awards: The department offers several awards to outstanding students:

The Department of History Award in Honor of Frances Edelman - A monetary award to a Graduate Student Teaching Assistant based upon academic achievement and student evaluations.

John O'Sullivan Scholarship - An award to defray the costs of graduate thesis research; amount varies based upon availability of funds and applications. To be eligible, students must have achieved candidacy and submitted a statement of purpose and budget for their research, as well as a letter of support from their primary thesis advisor.

Harold L. Glasser Memorial Award: An award of $500 to a History graduate or undergraduate student to support research activities related to the Harold L. Glasser Collection, including but not limited to World War II, 20th-century American-Jewish history, business history, and aviation history.

Weiner Spirit of America Graduate Research Award: An award of $500 to a History graduate student to conduct thesis research in an area covered by the Weiner Spirit of America collection at the FAU library, with an emphasis on the period 1500-1900. Attach a one-page letter of application and request a letter of support from thesis director.

Traci Jill Edelman Memorial Award for the Best Graduate M.A. Thesis: An award of $500 for the best History M.A. thesis. Any thesis from 2013 is eligible. Submit a copy of the thesis with application.

2. Honor Society: Graduate Students in good standing are eligible for membership in the Xi Omega chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, the History Honor Society. Members are eligible to present their work at the annual conference of the society.