

FAU'S DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY PRESENTS

Alan B. Larkin

SYMPOSIUM

DANIEL ELLSBERG SPEAKS: THE PENTAGON PAPERS FORTY YEARS LATER

A SYMPOSIUM WITH AMERICA'S MOST FAMOUS DISSIDENT

February 15-16, 2011
Florida Atlantic University
Boca Raton

"Forty years ago, Daniel Ellsberg presided over the biggest security breach in American history when he began leaking 7,000 pages of top secret documents to the press. He hoped to stop the Vietnam War. Instantly he became America's most wanted man...."

Tuesday, February 15, 2011, 3:30 p.m.

Public screening of the critically acclaimed film, The Most Dangerous Man in America: Daniel Ellsberg and the Pentagon Papers, with a discussion led by George Herring, the leading authority on the Pentagon Papers and the Vietnam War.

University Theatre

Admission to the film is free. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Wednesday, February 16, 2011, 3 p.m.

A lecture by Daniel Ellsberg, with a discussion led by George Herring
Carole and Barry Kaye Performing Arts Auditorium, FAU Student Union, Boca Raton Campus

Tickets to the lecture are required.

For tickets, go to www.fauevents.com or call 1-800-564-9539. Students and staff can pick-up free tickets from the FAU box office with valid FAU or student ID. All others: $12.

For more information, visit www.fau.edu/larkin