May 12 - June 22, 2013

Academic Program: This program is offered by the Department of Languages, Linguistics and Comparative Literature in conjunction with MADRID CREAción and Estudio Sampere. Students benefit from a project-based cultural studies approach that will enhance their Spanish language skills through a combination of tailored and intensive language and culture courses. Students will experience the Madrileño lifestyle while alternating excursions, courses, time spent with their host family, as well as time dedicated to individual assignments dealing with Spanish history, arts and culture.

Eligibility Requirements: Program is open to undergraduate and graduate students with a GPA of 2.5 or higher.

Course Descriptions:
- Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced Spanish Language (4 Credit Hours): Intensive Spanish language courses are offered at Estudio Sampere. The student’s Spanish proficiency will be tested upon arrival. Native and Heritage Speakers of Spanish have the option to sign up for the “History of Spanish Film / Arte en la Calle” course which will count as a Culture or Elective Course.
- SPW 4957/SPW 6908 Madrid, CREAción (3 Credit Hours): Students will learn the history of the city and become familiar with its geography through the study of films and meet a variety of directors, actors, writers, poets, photographers and other artists who are currently making Madrid a new artistic center. Students will work on a personal project in relation to one aspect of the course and in collaboration with one artist of their choice.

*Directed Independent Study available on a case-by-case basis.
