Dear Arts and Culture Enthusiasts,

FAU’s School of the Arts is pleased to announce our expanded season of events for 2014-15. Every year we strive to engage the community with new and exciting cultural offerings. This year we invite you to join us on FAU Arts Day, when the public will have a chance to come tour our facilities, watch artists at work, and become part of the creative process. Also this year, we have developed events which explore themes related to FAU’s new Peace, Justice and Human Rights Initiative. These events are indicated throughout the brochure by a *PJHR.

Hope to see you soon,
Heather Coltman, Dean

Closed: December 22 - January 6
Co-curated by Rod Faulds and guest curator Jeanie Giebel (FAU ’13), Altarations is an exhibition featuring over 20 contemporary artists who blend photographic images and processes to produce works that celebrate, contradict and undermine photographic traditions through altered images and references. The purposefully misspelled title of the exhibition is derived from Mark C. Taylor’s Altarity (1987) – an anthology of Taylor’s writing interpreting several modern philosopher’s views of difference and otherness. Select artists include Ellen Carey, Noriko Furunishi, Jibade-Khalil Huffman, Maria Martinez-Cañas, Hugh Scott-Douglas and James Welling among others.

For more than 10 years students trained by the University Galleries have provided interactive exhibition tours and arts education services for school-aged children through partnerships with the School District of Palm Beach County and the Cultural Educators Committee of the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County. The Museum Education Program strives to employ arts integration methods when collaborating with middle and high school teachers. The program also provides arts education services to children in after school settings such as annual exhibitions and other programs with the Boys and Girls Clubs of Palm Beach and Broward Counties. For information, call 561-297-2661 or visit www.fau.edu/galleries

Cultural Arts Prodigy Program

We Invite You to Invest in the Arts

We believe FAU is a vibrant regional institution that fosters creativity, celebrates diversity, and offers dynamic arts and cultural events that contribute to our community.

Award-winning faculty and renowned visiting scholars and artists present a diverse portfolio of programming in music, theatre, dance, the visual arts, and film. These emerging and distinguished artists, authors, and filmmakers offer classical, cutting-edge, and interdisciplinary work to engage and educate the citizens of South Florida.

As a public university, FAU is a valuable cultural resource right here in our community! Your gift of support helps us to:

- Strengthen faculty and student education, research and creative activities, and support new ideas and initiatives
- Enhance talent development, bringing the best and brightest artists and scholars to FAU and our community
- Sponsor distinguished artists and speakers to engage community audiences and inspire student artists

New! Ambassador of the Arts

By making a $1,000 contribution, Ambassadors express their commitment to expanding educational and artistic excellence, and help make FAU’s School of the Arts more visible to others in the community.
