A MESSAGE FROM DEAN MICHAEL HORSWELL

Dear Students,

On behalf of all our faculty and staff here in the Dorothy F. Schmidt College of Arts and Letters, I am pleased to welcome you back to campus for the 2023- 2024 school year!

For those of you I have not had the pleasure of meeting yet, I am Michael Horswell, Dean of the Dorothy F. Schmidt College of Arts and Letters, and I look forward to helping you achieve the goals you are pursuing with unbridled ambition!

As we start the new school year, I invite you to try new activities here at Florida Atlantic University and make the most of your college experience by engaging with your fellow students, world-class faculty, and helpful staff. Also, I would like to encourage you to connect with Arts and Letters by participating in our Fine Arts and Cultural Events throughout the academic year. Many of these events are free or have a minimum rate for FAU students. If you are interested in seeing the season brochure of events, please click the following link:

ARTS AND LETTERS BROCHURE !

Hot off the press- Our season brochures have arrived! Don't miss any of our amazing arts and culture events this year! Explore our meticulously designed brochure, available for your convenience both online on our website and in physical copies that you can grab.

They are all over the Arts and Humanities and the Culture and Society buildings!

EXHIBITON ALERT: THREADS, FOLDS AND RABBIT HOLES BY KRISTY DEETZ

Threads, Folds and Rabbit Holes by Kristy Deetz is on view until September 23, 2023!

The exhibition presents a series of mixed media paintings with embroidery and digital manipulation by Kristy Deetz. Alluding to Lewis Carroll's "Through the Looking-Glass," Deetz good-humoredly deconstructs imagery from pop, outsider, and high culture to create new spaces of meaning. The artist takes us into a rabbit hole of absurdism, exploring a fantastical, surrealist world. With a cameo by artist Evelyn Politzer.

Opening reception: August 31, 2023 at 6:00 pm

Place: Schmidt Center Gallery
