Regulation 4.002 Non-Academic Irregularities.

Non-Academic irregularities includes disruptive conduct and violations of public laws.

(1) Disruptive conduct is that conduct which interferes with the orderly operations of the University. Disruptive conduct may result in disciplinary action. Regulation 7.005, further defines disruptive conduct.

(2) Violation of public laws. Students are responsible for compliance with all federal, state, and local laws and ordinances. Any act that could constitute a violation of public laws will establish cause for legal and/or disciplinary action by the University.
