(d) When a non-probationary employee’s job performance falls below the established standards of the job, the supervisor will, as soon as practical, advise that employee in writing in order to provide an opportunity for that employee to improve his or her performance. The written notification may be in memorandum form or may be verbal counseling documented in the supervisor’s file.

(e) Where an employee has completed their probationary period in the class and does not meet performance standards, the University shall develop a performance plan intended to correct performance deficiencies.

An employee reporting for duty to a special event outside their regular work hours shall be guaranteed two-thirds (23) hours of pay if an event is canceled or concluded prior to the end of the two-thirds (23) hour period covered by the guaranteed pay provision. An employee’s failure to adhere to the Department’s procedures for determining the status of the event prior to reporting for such duty will cause the employee to lose eligibility for the guaranteed two-thirds (23) hours. If, after the employee reports to work, the event is canceled or concluded prior to the end of the guaranteed two-thirds (23) hours, management may assign other law enforcement duties within the scope of the employee’s position description during the guaranteed two-thirds (23) hour period.
