COMMITTEE ON ACADEMIC AND STUDENT AFFAIRS

Tuesday, February 16, 2021

SUBJECT: UPDATE ON SUS TENURE AND TENURE UPON APPOINTMENT PROCESSES

---

PROPOSED COMMITTEE ACTION

No action is necessary. This item is only informational.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Procedures for the awarding of tenure is outlined in FAU Regulation 5.006 Tenure Procedures and Article 15 of the FAU-BOT and UFF Collective Bargaining Agreement for 2018-2021. Likewise, the tenure upon appointment process follows these procedures. Furthermore, the University's Office of the Provost issues specific guidance including the Principles for Creating Criteria for Promotion & Tenure; Criteria for the Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure of Faculty; Annual Tenure and Promotion Guideline Memos; and various college-level guidelines and documents. To provide the Committee on Academic and Student Affairs (CASA) with insights regarding how these processes work at other institutions, Dr. Bret Danilowicz, provost and vice president for academic affairs, and Trustee Brad Levine, CASA chair, will review comparable practices across the State University System of Florida. The Committee will then have the opportunity to discuss best practices and opportunities for enhancing procedures at FAU.
