1. Provide a short rationale for inactivation of the program.

The program was not making required enrollments to continue its feasibility. Additionally, it was costly as it required extensive faculty and student travel to partner universities in Spain and Brazil. Half of the degree program was to be completed at foreign, partner schools in courses taught by FAU faculty members abroad.

2. State what steps have been taken to inform native and, in the case of baccalaureate programs, transfer students from the Florida College System of the intent to halt enrollments?

The program is a masters degree program, and has been on hiatus since 2005, therefore no students are in the pipeline.
