State appropriations is split between general revenue and lottery allocated by the Florida legislature. Tuition & Fees refers to tuition authority, which is the amount of tuition that the University is allowed to collect for the fiscal year. We budget out $128M as we do not expect to collect the full $136M.

FAU was appropriated an additional $9.8M in recurring funds during this year's legislative session. Of that increase, $5M was for operational enhancement and $4.2M for the Education PIPELINE. Both are recurring.

Education & General Budget

| Education & General Budget | | | | | | |

| | 2019-20 2020-21 2021-22 2022-23 | | | | | |

| Expenses | 343,540,904 | 348,677,239 | 349,708,540 | 362,356,562 | | |

The E&G revenue budget is always larger than E&G expenses due to tuition authority. We are allowed to budget up to $136M for tuition, but the University holds back a portion as we do not expect to generate that much tuition in the coming fiscal year. This results in a difference between the revenue and expense budget.

Voluntary Retirement Incentive Program

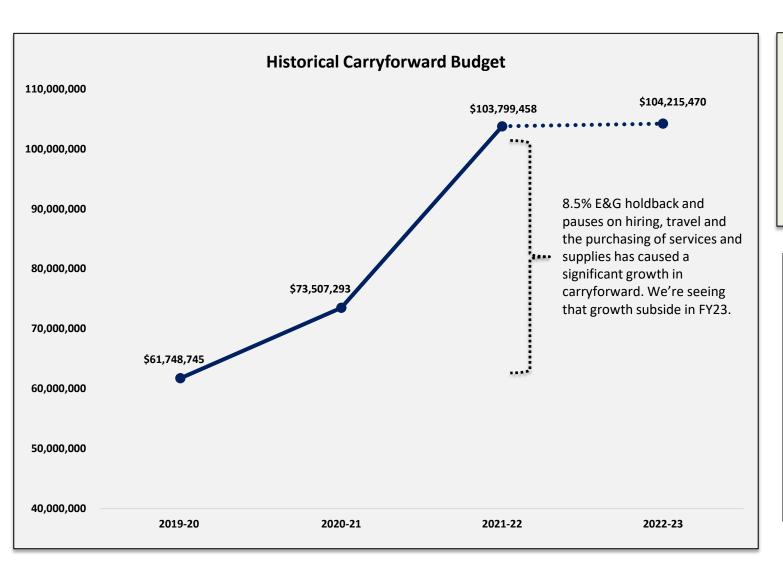

Fiscal Year 2022 Retirement Reallocation

In FY21, the University created a voluntary retirement program to better anticipate the fiscal, operational, and staffing impacts of its tenured faculty members' retirement plans. This allowed the University to proactively engage in succession planning and strategically reinvest resources. For this round, 40 Faculty members participated which will result in a reinvestment of funding for 45 additional new faculty hires and additional academic initiatives. These initiatives include Math Lab, academic advisors, and startups.

Upcoming Fiscal Year 2023 Program

The University conducted another voluntary retirement incentive program that will take effect in the upcoming fiscal year (FY23). For this second round, 16 faculty and 1 administrator participated. The university is looking to reinvest these funds into 16 new faculty, 1 new administrator and a College of Science startup.

Carryforward

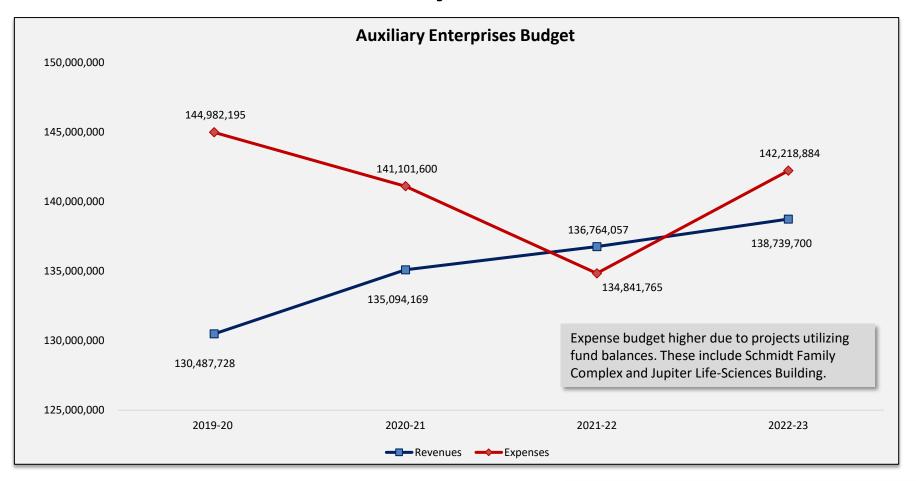

Carryforward is unspent E&G that rolls over from prior years.

Starting in FY23, E&G funds that are rolled into carryforward will be taxed 15%. In FY24, this will be increased to 25%. This creates a strategic investment pool for university leadership to fund new initiatives.
