Monday May 11th , 2009 10:00 am - 4:30 pm

Student Union, Grand Palm Room & Live Oak Pavilion - FAU Boca Raton

Today's graduates are facing one of the most challenging job markets given the downward economy. FAU's Career Development Center, in the Division of Student Affairs, has developed a one day seminar in response to these tough economic times to help jumpstart your post-graduation employment plans. The graduation class of 2009 (Spring, Summer, or Fall 2009) is invited to attend.

This seminar will feature (1) a panel discussion on who's hiring, (2) a job search presentation and (3) a presentation on successfully transitioning from college to work. Additionally, there will be employers available to critique your resume and lunch will be provided.
