

Revised – May 2007

SUBJECT: Bank Account Establishment

All Florida Atlantic University bank accounts must reside within banks approved by the State Treasurer as public depositories. Bank accounts in the name of Florida Atlantic University can only be established by the University Controller. University departments should never open a bank account without written authorization from the University Controller. The University Controller is responsible for overseeing banking services for University funds deposited outside the State Treasury.