The Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL) is here to support your academic success - even while you are away from campus to protect your health and safety!

MATH LEARNING CENTER (MLC) - the MLC will offer online tutoring in most of its key courses. Each course has a designated tutor(s) with specific hours. Click here to view the full schedule. All tutoring will be drop-in only during this time. To join an online eTutoring session, just click the available link during the posted hours. Very limited face-to-face tutoring will be available, please visit the website for more information.

UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE IN WRITING (UCEW) - the UCEW will offer 40 minute consulting appointments throughout the day (there will not be any other type of appointment). Students will only be allowed one appointment per day and only two in a week. Visit www.fau.edu/UCEW to make an appointment. Very limited face-to-face consulting will be available. Make sure to select “online appointment” unless you are coming to campus. We have provided screen capture directions for how to use Google Hangouts and Google Docs for these online sessions.

SCIENCE LEARNING CENTER (SLC) & CLASS TUTORING - the SLC and CLASS will offer online tutoring in most of its key science, engineering, business, language, and other courses. Each course has a designated tutor(s) with specific hours. Click here to make an appointment. Very limited face-to-face tutoring will be available. Instructions to attend an online tutoring appointment will be emailed to the respective students just before the session begins via the tutor. However, to be familiar with WebEx and how to access the online platform, please review the instructions here.

LEARNING ASSISTANTS (LAs) for MATH & CHEMISTRY - LAs will continue to support you in your course. All LAs will continue with their scheduled office hours online via WebEx in Canvas. Look for email instructions from your LA. Click here to view the full schedule.

SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION (SI) - SI sessions will continue to be offered through eSI. Each SI Leader will have specific hours. Click here to view the full schedule. No appointments are necessary, but email communication regarding available sessions and instructions on how to enroll into available sessions will be sent via each SI Leader to the course.

CIVIC LITERACY WORKSHOPS - In person Civic Literacy workshops will be canceled until classes resume. Students will be able to attend online workshops beginning the week of March 23rd. Click here to view the schedule. Additionally, students can self-enroll in the Canvas group for Civic Literacy practice and view the workshop recordings and materials. Click here to auto-enroll and view the materials. Students who want to participate in real time (synchronous) online workshops starting March 23rd would also enroll in the course by clicking here.
