(1) Statement of Philosophy
Florida Atlantic University is a public research university with multiple campuses along the southeast Florida coast serving a uniquely diverse community. It promotes academic and personal development, discovery and lifelong learning. FAU fulfills its mission through excellence and innovation in teaching, outstanding research and creative activities, public engagement and distinctive scientific and cultural alliances, all within an environment that fosters inclusiveness. FAU accomplishes its mission primarily through its students, teachers and researchers, its undergraduate educational programs, its graduate and professional offerings, and its linkages to other educational institutions and in the community.

The University’s Student Code of Conduct is an integral part of the educational mission of the University, emphasizing the development of each individual’s acceptance of his or her own personal and social responsibilities, and ensuring fairness in the implementation of the procedural requirements described in this regulation for all students.

The University’s Student Code of Conduct is designed to provide and help maintain an atmosphere within the University Community that is conducive to academic pursuits. Serious action against a student, such as separation, is considered and invoked only when other remedies fail to meet the needs of the University’s mission.

The University, however, recognizes its responsibilities to all members of the University Community, and the protection of personal and institutional rights and property is a primary focus of the process described in this Regulation 4.007.

(2) Principles
The University principles address the respect for the law, regulations and policies, and the respect for people.

(a) Respect for the Law. Students are expected to obey all regulations, rules, and policies of the University and all local, state and federal laws. If regulations, policies or laws are considered to be unfair or improper, it is expected that students will use appropriate, established, and lawful procedures to effect change.

(b) Respect for Self and Others. Students are encouraged to conduct themselves in a manner which exemplifies respect for all people and to adhere to one’s personal values without unduly imposing them on others. In interpersonal relationships, students are encouraged to respect the rights of others, particularly their right to refuse to participate in any activity. Students are encouraged to serve as leaders in promoting compassion for others and challenging prejudice.

All students in the University Community, regardless of institutional or program affiliation, are expected to know and adhere to the regulations, rules, and policies of the University, as well as local, state, and federal laws.

(3) Jurisdiction of the University
A student, student organization or a person who has submitted an application for admission, housing, or any other service provided by the University which requires a student or student organization status will be subject to the Student Code of Conduct for any conduct which occurs on University controlled property, at University-sponsored events or off campus under the conditions described in this regulation. (b) Objectives of the Hearing. Requisite levels of fairness and the satisfaction of certain minimum requirements will be provided to all participants during these proceedings. The Hearing shall have the following objectives:

1. Inform the student of the charges.
2. Give the accused student an opportunity to respond to the charges.
3. Review the facts of the case.
4. Determine if any violation of the Student Code of Conduct was committed and communicate its findings to the Dean of Students.
5. Recommend any sanction(s) to be imposed based upon the facts, as determined at the Hearing, and communicate any recommendations to the Dean of Students.

(c) Witnesses. All parties to the Hearing may arrange for witnesses to voluntarily present relevant information during the Hearing. The questioning of witnesses shall be facilitated by the Hearing Officer or Student Conduct Board chair, as applicable. Such witnesses at Hearings will not be sworn in. Each witness will be admonished that he or she is required to tell the truth. A student giving untrue testimony at a Hearing is subject to student conduct charges.

(d) Information.

1. The charged student and his/her adviser, if any, have the right to inspect all of the information that will be presented against the student at least three (3) business days before the Hearing. The University also has the right to review any information that the student intends to use at least three (3) business days before the Hearing.
2. The charged student may present information on his/her own behalf. Pertinent records, exhibits, and written statements may be accepted as information for consideration by the Hearing Officer or the Student Conduct Board at their discretion.

(e) Burdens of Proof. The Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer shall determine whether, by a preponderance of the evidence, it is more likely than not that the accused student violated the Student Code of Conduct. This means that the information presented supports the finding that it is more likely than not that the violation occurred. The University bears the burden of proof.

(f) The charged student and the complainant may each choose one advisor to be present during the process at the student’s or complainant’s expense and initiative. It is the student’s or complainant’s responsibility to make appropriate arrangements for the adviser to attend the Hearing, which shall not be delayed due to scheduling conflicts of the chosen adviser. The adviser may be present to advise the student or complainant but may not speak for or present the case for the student or complainant, present statements or arguments, question witnesses or otherwise participate in the process.

1. Members of the Student Conduct Board may not serve as a student’s advisor at the Hearing.
2. If the charged student or complainant chooses an attorney as his/her advisor at the Hearing, he or she must inform the Dean of Students at least three (3) business days before the Hearing. In such cases the University will be advised by a University attorney as well.

(g) Hearings.

1. All Hearings before the Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer will be digitally recorded by the University. That recording will serve as the only official record of these proceedings and shall be the property of the University. No other recordings are permitted. Deliberations shall not be recorded.

2. The following is a guide to the format of events for Hearings. The Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer may change the order if necessary. The Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer may question any party or witness directly.
   b. Reading of Charges.
   c. Opening statement and presentation of information by the charged student.
   d. Questioning of University’s witnesses, followed by the questioning of charged student’s voluntary witnesses.
   e. Questions directed to the charged student by the Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer.
   f. Closing statement by the charged student.
   g. Deliberation by the Board or Hearing Officer (not taped).
   h. The Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer may recommend a decision(s) and a sanction(s) to the Dean of Students. Such recommendation of decision(s) and sanction(s) may be presented to the student by the Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer.

(h) The Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer recommendation will include a finding of “Responsible” or “Not Responsible” for each of the alleged violations listed on the Notice of Charges, based solely on the information presented at the Hearing. The Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer will inform the Dean of Students of its findings and any recommendation for sanctions based on its findings. If the Student Conduct Board cannot reach a finding of “Responsible” or “Not Responsible” to a charge within a reasonable time period based on the complexity of the case, the chairperson shall call the Board as deadlocked and the Dean of Students may call a new Hearing date with new Board members to hear that charge. No person serving on the first Board shall serve on the second Board. If the second Board also deadlocks, then the charges against the charged student shall be dismissed.

(i) If the charged student fails to appear at the scheduled Hearing (after proper notice), the student shall be found Responsible for each of the alleged violations listed on the Notice of Charges and may not appeal the finding of responsibility. The student retains the right only to appeal the severity of the sanction.

(j) The Dean of Students will review the findings and recommendations of the Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer, as applicable. The Dean of Students will then make a decision as to the violation(s) in question and sanctions imposed, which decision which may consist of adopting, modifying, or rejecting the recommended decision and sanctions of the Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer, or remanding the matter for rehearing. The Dean of Students will send a correspondence (referred to as a “Notice of Decision and Sanction”) informing the student of the Dean of Students’ final decision and sanctions and explaining any differences between the recommendation of the Student Conduct Hearing Board or Hearing Officer and the Dean of Students’ final decision. Such correspondence will be sent to the student within a reasonable period of time after the conclusion of the Hearing.

(13) Student Conduct Sanctioning is intended:
   a. 1. To promote the student’s education regarding the experience.
      2. To educate the student so he or she does not commit the violation again.
      3. To offer the student the opportunity to make good on a mistake.
4. To ensure that University expectations regarding appropriate behavior are clear.

5. To educate the student concerning how his or her behavior impacts others in the University Community.

6. To protect the University Community from people who may harm others in the University Community or who may substantially interfere with the educational mission of the University or other institutions.

(b) Student Conduct Sanctions. The following sanctions or combination of sanctions may be imposed by the Dean of Students upon any individual student or student organization found “Responsible” for violations of this Code. In light of the facts and circumstances of each case, a Student Affairs hold may be placed by the Dean of Students Office on Registration (if not already in place) upon receiving sanctions or failure to comply with the imposed sanctions. A student found responsible for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct shall be subject to sanctions commensurate with the offense with consideration given to any aggravating and mitigating circumstances, including but not limited to the student’s conduct record. Potential sanctions to be imposed by the Dean of Students include:

10. Deferred Suspension – The student will be officially suspended from the University, but the suspension will be deferred. Suspensions can be deferred for a semester or indefinitely.

(14) Parental Notification Policy

Florida Atlantic University is committed to the success of its students both inside and outside of the classroom. Therefore, it is our goal to maximize students’ learning and development, and promote their health, safety and welfare. In this regard, FAU has implemented a Parental Notification policy in compliance with the request of the Florida Board of Governors. The Parental Notification policy permits the University the right to inform parents or guardians when their dependent student (pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code), under the age of 21, has been found in violation of the University Alcoholic Beverages and Drug-Free Environment policy.

(a) In non-emergency situations, parents of dependent students, under the age of 21, will be notified in writing. However, in emergency situations, parents may be notified by an immediate phone call from the Dean for Students or his/her designee.
(b) These guidelines do not preclude Parental Notification for other policy violations that may endanger the health, safety and well-being of a student or other individuals in the University Community. In addition, Parental Notification may occur in health and safety emergencies regardless of the student’s age or dependent status.

(c) Students, whose parents are to be notified under these guidelines, will be informed, when possible, before such notification occurs and given an opportunity to initiate contact with their parents.

(15) Appeals

A student may appeal the decision of the Dean of Students (as to whether the student has been found responsible or not responsible) and/or the sanctions imposed by the Dean of Students.

(a) Standards for Appeal.

1. Failure to receive the minimum requirements of process, as described under this Regulation.
2. Severity of the sanction.

(b) All appeals must be postmarked or received in correspondence within five (5) business days of the date of the “Notice of Decision and Sanction” to the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee for consideration. All appeals must specify the basis for the appeal. No person may hear or decide an appeal if he/she conducted or participated in the Hearing.

(c) The burden of proof at the appellate level rests with the charged student.

(d) The student’s pre-decision status will remain unchanged pending the appeal determination by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee (that is, a student shall remain eligible to attend classes and University activities pending the University’s final decision in the student conduct proceeding), except where the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee determines that the safety, health or general welfare of the student or the University Community is involved, in which case a student’s privileges at the University, including the ability to attend classes or engage in University activities, may be suspended on an interim basis as described under the Emergency Measures provisions of this Regulation. In that case, the provisions under Section 9 will also apply.

(e) After considering the appeal, the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee may reopen the Hearing, order a new Hearing with the same or new Conduct Board or Hearing Officer, uphold or reverse the prior decision of the Dean of Students or revise the sanction. The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee shall provide the student written notice of his or her decision within a reasonable period of time after receipt of the appeal request.

(f) The appeal determination of the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee is final and binding on all parties. There are no further appeals within the University. The student has a right to appeal the University’s final decision to an external judicial forum.

11. At the request of the complainant in cases involving sexual violence, sexual battery, sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and bullying charges, the complainant may request to testify in a separate room from the charged student so long as the process does not unduly compromise the charged student. At no time during the hearing will the charged student and complainant be permitted to directly question one another, but rather, all questions between the charged student and complainant will be submitted to and asked by the Hearing Officer or Student Conduct Hearing Board.

12. In cases involving sexual violence, sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and bullying the complainant may request confidentiality in the investigation. The Dean of Students will respect the request for confidentiality to the greatest extent possible. However, the Dean of Students will evaluate the request for confidentiality in the context of the responsibility to provide a safe and nondiscriminatory environment for students.

a. In cases where the complainant of cases involving sexual violence, sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and bullying, request confidentiality, the complainant will be notified that the ability of the Dean of Students to conduct a thorough investigation may be limited.

b. In cases where the complainant requests confidentiality, but the Dean of Students finds a threat to the health, safety, and welfare of a student or the University community, allegations of sexual violence, sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking and/or bullying will be reported to University law enforcement.
