OPENING FOR ASSISTANT PROFESSOR FALL 2015

Position Summary
Florida Atlantic University School of Criminology and Criminal Justice, College of Design and Social Inquiry, invites applications for a tenure earning Assistant Professor position at the Boca Raton Campus.

Florida Atlantic University is a Carnegie doctorate-granting university (RU/high research activity) with over 30,000 students. The School of Criminology and Criminal Justice is the third largest undergraduate degree program by enrollment at FAU. We offer the Bachelor of Arts and a Master's of Science in Criminology and Criminal Justice. The School's diverse program continues to grow with over 1,300 undergraduate students and 90 graduate students. School initiatives include study abroad, summer camp, online undergraduate degree, advisory council, and research colloquium, joint undergraduate program with Social Work, terminal degree, and research partnerships with private industry.

Application Start Date: August 2015

Qualifications
Applicants for the position must have a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or Criminology. PhDs in related fields with documented specialization in Criminal Justice or Criminology will be considered. ABDs will be considered if requirements for the Ph.D. are completed by the starting date.

The successful candidate must demonstrate a commitment to quality teaching, the ability to conduct research and publish, and the ability to contribute to our Master of Science in Criminology and Criminal Justice. Area of specialization is open, but preference will be given to candidates who can teach across the criminology and criminal justice core and possess strong backgrounds in theory and quantitative or qualitative research. Preferred applicants should also demonstrate potential for external funding and experience with eLearning.

This position requires a commitment to collegiality, innovation in teaching and learning, scholarship and publication, professional development, and academic citizenship. Interest in sponsored research that opens avenues for our students is highly desirable. Evidence of a commitment to cultural diversity is expected.

Special Instructions to applicants:
This position is open until filled and may close without prior notice.

Screening is ongoing with plans to complete the search on or before March 1, 2015. Priority consideration will be given to applications applying early, but the review will continue until the position is filled.

Our application site permits the attachment of required/requested documentation. In addition to completing the online application, please upload the following: a letter of application, curriculum vitae, copies of official transcripts scanned into an electronic format, and three references. Every applicant may upload a maximum of 6 documents. The maximum size for each document is 2MB. If you have more than 6 documents to be attached, we recommend that you combine two (2) or more items into one (1) document prior to uploading.
Degrees from outside the United States must be validated by an organization belonging to the National Association of Credential Evaluation Service (NACES), with an indication of the documents the evaluation was prepared from (official transcripts, diplomas, dissertation abstracts). The evaluation should be scanned and electronically attached to one's application as with other US-based transcripts.

Prior to appointment, the candidate must submit official, sealed transcripts from all institutions where graduate coursework was attempted, whether or not a degree was obtained, as well as an original NACES evaluation, if applicable. Transcripts must be issued to Florida Atlantic University not to you as the student.

A background check will be required for the candidate selected for this position. This position is subject to funding.
