

Planning In Paradise: The Squeeze is On Annual Conference

Florida Chapter of the American Planning Association
September 27th-30th, 2006

The Florida Chapter of the American Planning Association (FAPA) will be hosting its annual conference on September 27th-30th, 2006 at the Marco Island Marriott Resort in Marco Island, Florida. The conference will be well-attended by planning professionals, developers, architects, landscape architects, policy makers, academics, and students from the University of Florida, Florida State University, and Florida Atlantic University. Students enjoy a discounted rate of $95.00 to attend all sessions, luncheons, and socials. FAPA Student Council will also be hosting a student reception, panel discussion, and job fair at this year's event. Additional information about the conference can be found at www.floridaplanning.org

If you would like to volunteer 8 hours at the conference to qualify for a $50 registration reimbursement, contact Marty Quinn, FAPA administrative staff at adminbk@floridaplanning.org. If you are a graduate student and need financial assistance to attend this event, visit www.gradcouncil.fau.edu/grants.html to obtain information on the graduate grant application process. If you are an undergraduate member of Florida Atlantic Planning Society (FAPS) and need financial assistance to attend or need any other information about this event, contact Travis Minch, FAPA Student Representative at tminch1@fau.edu.
