In honor and celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the Office of Diversity and Multicultural Affairs proudly presents the 2016 MLK Diversity Address, “Advancing the Dream Together.” The goal is to examine social justice issues that impact our daily lives and to promote continuing efforts to advance “the dream” collectively and bridge the gaps of inequality. Keynote speaker Tim Wise will focus on dismantling years of inequalities and creating change in our communities.

RSVP at tinyurl.com/j3syc9t by Jan. 15 to participate in the Boca Campus Reception, where you will be able to meet and dialog with Tim Wise.

Learning Outcomes:
- Participants will learn about the perpetuation of racial inequity in the United States, specifically economic and cultural factors.
- Participants will understand various policies, practices and procedures that exist within educational, employment and organizational settings.
- Participants will differentiate between individual and institutional bias as well as how privilege and oppression contrast.

This event is FREE for students and will be simulcast on the Broward and Jupiter campuses.
