

Our degree:

- Offers affordable tuition
- Offers courses fully online; accessible at all times

The Online Master's Degree in Adult and Community Education Leadership is a 36-39 credit program intended to provide learning, training and practical experience, in both formal and non-formal settings, that fosters personal development, community development, and action for change in our human and natural worlds.

This program intends to prepare students to respond to uncertain and rapidly transforming world conditions in ways that value personal initiative, responsibility, creativity, commitment and collaboration with others. Students will learn to share strategies for developing learning communities that emphasize sustainability and environmental stewardship at all levels because each individual's quality of life is connected to the well-being of the community, both locally and globally.

Learn more at:

<http://fauelearning.com/faonline/>

Contact us:

Adult and Community Education Program
Department of Educational Leadership and Research Methodology
College of Education
777 Glades Road
Boca Raton, FL 33431

561.799.8716
edleadership@fau.edu

www.facebook.com/FAUAdultComEd

Other links:

For University Registrar's forms; including non-degree student application information, visit:

www.fau.edu/registrar/forms.php

To apply, visit:

www.fau.edu/graduate/applyonline

*Our values lead the way ...To distinctively impact our faculty, students, communities and educational policy,
practice and research.*

October 2017

The image shows the Florida Atlantic University (FAU) logo, which consists of the letters 'FAU' in a stylized font.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC
UNIVERSITY

M.ED. in

Adult and Community

Educational Leadership

A photograph of a young man with short brown hair, wearing a white t-shirt, sitting at a desk and working on a laptop. He is looking at the screen with a slight smile. The background is a bright, out-of-focus window.

Advance your career without going to campus!

...building resilience and sustainability in community, education, business and government.

courses with flexible, self-directed schedules

Your road map to becoming a leader of resilient and sustainable community organizations begins at Florida Atlantic University. An environment where the College of Education faculty delivers outstanding instruction at the graduate level with courses that meet national quality benchmarks.

Our program prepares leaders:

to foster sustainable local, state, national and international learning communities, to become significant change agents, creating connections between adult education, sustainability and environmental education.

Our students will become leaders and directors in:

- educational institutions
- non-profit agencies
- corporations
- government and community agencies

Our graduates are:

sustainable leaders, proactive problem solvers, architects of workplace communities that focus on sustainability, visionaries who will pave the way for future generations.

Our Faculty:

- has extensive teaching experience, a broad range of peer-reviewed research publications, significant practical experience in education, non-profit and corporate organizations
- is certified in online instruction
- includes a recipient of the Charles Stewart Mott Professorship and Eminent Scholar's Chair in Community Education.

Our values lead the way...

to distinctively impact our faculty, students, communities and educational policy, practice and research.

Our mission:

The Department of Educational Leadership and Research Methodology is a community of scholars focusing on the preparation and support of leaders and researchers in Florida, the nation, and the international community.