Current FAU students may apply for travel grants. You need to do this at least six weeks prior to the start of any conference. You apply through the travel offices, not the ESHP department.

Graduate students, www.fau.edu/graduate

The following list is a sample of upcoming professional conferences. Many of the organizations hold specialized or regional conferences. For more information, go to the organization’s home page.

March 31-April 3, 2015, American College of Sports Medicine’s Health & Fitness Summit & Exposition, Phoenix, Arizona. www.acsm.org
May 26-30, 2015, American College of Sports Medicine’s Annual Conference, San Diego, California. www.acsm.org
June 23-26, 2015, National Association of Athletic Trainers’ Annual Conference, St. Louis, Missouri. www.nata.org
July 8-12, 2015, National Strength and Conditioning’s Annual Conference, Orlando, Florida. www.nsca-lift.org
October 7-9, 2015, Club Industry Conference, Chicago, Illinois. www.clubindustry.com
October 25-28, 2015, AASHE Annual Conference, Minneapolis, MN, www.aashe.org

Updated January 15, 2015