

Safety Manual Information Sheet

- The FAU EH&S Safety Manual is published in electronic format only, and is available under the “Safety Manuals” link on the EH&S web page at: www.fau.edu/ehs
- In the past, your area may have been provided with a binder containing individually printed safety programs. If you wish to maintain paper copies, please be sure you have the latest revision.
- EH&S will publicize updates and additions to the FAU Safety Manual through email notifications and other means as necessary.
- Contact EH&S if you have any questions about which safety programs apply to your area.
