Application

Rules for award applicants:

1. In order to be eligible, an applicant must be a high school senior or undergraduate college student attending an educational institution located within Broward County, Palm Beach County, or Miami-Dade County, Florida.

2. The applicant must fill out this application and attach the requested documentation. The exact criteria for selecting the winners of the 2007 FPA of Broward County Award, herein after called “the Award,” is at the sole discretion of the FPA of Broward County Board of Directors. However, there are 4 elements that will be considered for each applicant: grade point average, SAT score, teacher recommendations, and the answer provided by the applicant to an essay question related to the profession of financial planning. The criteria for selecting the award winners will not in any way discriminate on the basis of gender, race, religion, national origin, etc.

3. The Award will recognize students for scholastic excellence. The winner in the high school senior category will receive a prize of $1,500. The winner in the undergraduate college student category will receive a prize of $1,500.

4. The Financial Planning Association (FPA) of Broward County Board of Directors, herein after called “the Board,” will oversee all aspects of the Award. The Board will govern every aspect of the award, including the selection of award recipients. Applicants agree that any disputes will be resolved solely by the Board, and that the decisions of the Board in all matters pertaining to the award are final. The Board reserves the right to appoint anyone who is a member of the FPA of Broward County to assist with any aspect of the award process, including the selection of award recipients.

5. This application, including requested documentation, must be received at the main office of the FPA of Broward County by April 2, 2007. An application postmarked on or before April 2, 2007 and received by April 7, 2007 shall be deemed received timely. Any application received after these dates will automatically be disqualified.

6. The award winners will be determined by April 16, 2007. The winners will be notified as soon as possible thereafter. Any applicant agrees that if they are selected as an award recipient, they will appear at the South Florida FPA Conference 2007 (Saturday, April 21, 2007), at which time they will receive an award certificate. The Board reserves the right to disqualify any award recipient who fails to appear at the preceding event, in which case a runner-up would be selected by the Board to receive the award in lieu of the disqualified recipient. Any applicant agrees that if they are selected as an award recipient, to participate without compensation in any FPA of Broward County related publicity activities, including, but not limited to, photographs and media interviews.

7. The actual monetary award will be provided on or after June 6, 2007, upon receipt by the Board of the award recipients’ proof of enrollment or re-enrollment to any 2-year or 4-year accredited college or university.

8. The applicant, as well as the applicant’s parents or guardians, shall, insofar as permitted by law, hold harmless the FPA of Broward County, its board of directors, its members, and any other individuals or organizations involved with the Award against any and all claims, liabilities, etc. relating to the award process.

9. The applicant, as well as the applicant’s parent or guardian, by signing below, accepts all of the above-stated rules in their entirety.
