Purpose of form: Student enrollment for term is above the average number of credits normally taken by an Undergraduate student (13 credits) or a Graduate student (10 credits fall/spring, 6 credits summer). Meaning cost of attendance for term is higher than the average student population. By submitting this form after drop/add week, student is requesting for an increase in cost of attendance. If approved student may be considered for additional funding based on counselor review. In some cases may result in student having option to apply for a larger private or parent plus loan.

IMPORTANT: Form will be accepted after drop/add week of term, below are the earliest dates form will be accepted:

August 28, 2017 for Fall 2017
