Rosters for participating teams are due to Gabby Gibson (logistics.owlsgw@gmail.com) in excel spreadsheet form no later than Monday, February 18, 2019 at 11:59p.
I. All rules and regulations, events, and schedules are subject to change. Should a change occur, all teams will be notified ASAP through their respective Greek Week chairs and given an updated packet.

II. Contact Policy

   i. Questions regarding pre-point opportunities, point distribution, attendance, or rosters should be directed to Gabby Gibson.
   ii. Questions regarding Greek Week Chair Trainings, the Career Center, or Education Night should be directed to Michelle Alpizar
   iii. Questions regarding Greeks Got Talent should be directed to Wade Cooper
   iv. Questions regarding the video or any other social media points should be directed to Hannah Henderson
   v. Questions regarding Sports & Recreation should be directed to Margarita Murphy
   vi. Questions regarding service opportunities or philanthropy fundraising should be directed to Michael Tin vii. Violations should be reported using the Grievance Form on pg. 25 and submitted to the Office of FS Life within 24 hours of its occurrence.
   viii. The Executive Board will not tolerate complaints in reference to the information and policies stated in this packet. Courteous communications for official Greek Week matters and clarification are welcome; arguments about the details of the packet are not.

Method of Contact

   i. Teams and organizations should only communicate with the Executive Board through their Greek Week Chairs.
   ii. Aside from justifiably urgent matters, please use e-mail as the primary form of contact and allow up to 48 hours for a response.
   iii. Email subject line should start with “Team #” and signature should include your organization.
   iv. JC Bravo and Margarita Murphy should be CCed on all e-mails regarding Greek Week.

III. FAU Student Code of Conduct

   a. All teams will be required to follow all policies outlined by the Office of Student Conduct – Student Code of Conduct (4.007), Student Government & Student Organizations (4.006), Alcohol Policy 1.2, University Policies and Regulations – which can be accessed in full at www.fau.edu/studentconduct.

b. Alcohol and Substance Abuse Policy

i. 1.2 “The unlawful possession, use or abuse of alcohol is strictly prohibited... at any university event. No university student is to... participate in a university activity while impaired by the use of alcohol. ...The university condemns any act related to the consumption of alcohol that impairs, interferes, or endangers the safety or enjoyment of others, including the individual who chooses to consume the alcohol.”

ii. 1.2 “Violations of this policy will subject the individual not only to university sanctions but also to potential criminal prosecution by the appropriate authorities.”

c. Any team whose members are deemed by the Greek Week Executive Board to be acting in an unprofessional manner – including, but not limited to, disorderly conduct, vandalism, theft, unauthorized entry, verbal or physical threats – will be referred to the Greek Week Advisor and/or the Fraternity and Sorority Life office to decide appropriate action, which may include disqualification from Greek Week.

d. Any team that violates FAU’s policies may be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students and disqualified from Greek Week.

I. Any and all issues regarding a team’s eligibility and/or disciplinary actions are ultimately up to the discretion of the Greek Week Advisor and/or based on any alleged violation referred by the Greek Week Executive Board.

II. Other than pre-point opportunities through the Career Center, team members must properly check-in with the Executive Board for their attendance at events to count. If a team does not attend or participate in an event, 0 points will be awarded.

III. In the event of a tie in attendance for the breakout sessions of Education Night, the full amount of points for the higher tied ranking will be awarded to all tied teams; for any other ties, the points associated with the tied rankings will be averaged and equally awarded to each of the tied teams.

IV. It is the obligation of every team and chapter to read and understand this packet in its entirety.

V. Every chapter must turn in a completed and signed Greek Week 2018 Agreement Form on page 26 in order to participate in any event associated with Greek Week.

Education Night

Date: Tuesday, April 2, 2019
Time: 7:00p Check-in will run from 6:30p-6:55p
Location: Carole and Barry Kaye Auditorium
Attire: Dressed to pin

It is with great excitement that we present to you an Education Night like never before! Following the Keynote speaker, a select number of members from each team will take part in more intimate and interactive break-out sessions, each tailored with a specific values based conversation to enrich our Greek community.

Each team will be required to register* a maximum of 30 team members who will attend the break-out sessions. These individuals registered will attend the keynote speech and the breakout sessions, and the closing keynotes in their entirety. Additional Members who attend the opening keynote can sign in and receive bonus points but must stay for the entirety of the opening keynote. For this night to be most effective and worthwhile, all chapters and councils must be represented; at least 1 member of each chapter on your team should register and attend. It’s encouraged that the members of smaller chapters within each team are given priority to the 30 spots.

Check-in will start at 6:30p and end at 6:55p on the dot. Pin attire is required for admittance. At check-in, individuals assign for the break-out sessions will receive a name tag with their schedule for the evening; individuals attending only the keynote speech will receive a wristband. Each team’s attendance will be determined the number of completed QR Codes that will be given throughout the breakout sessions and closing keynotes. Those who check in at 6:30p but fail to fill out the QR Codes in their entirety will not receive attendance. The night will begin promptly at 6:30p with our keynote speaker. We ask all individuals in attendance to behave professionally, show respect to the speakers and facilitators, and engage in the subject matter. Misconduct will not be tolerated. Individuals seen using their phone, tablet, laptop, etc. will cause point deductions for their team. Disruptive individuals will be asked to leave, their attendance will not count, and further point deductions will be taken.

The only accepted excuses for this night will be class. Schedules must be screenshotted from your MYFAU page with the “My Week at Glance”. Schedules must be sent in to Michelle Alpizar (education.owlsgw@gmail.com) no later than Thursday, March 28th at 5pm, labeled (Name_Team#_EdExcuse).

Points will be awarded for breakout sessions attendance; rankings will be determined based on number of participants.

percentages will be calculated as follow...

Breakout Session Points

1st Place: 1200 Points

2nd Place: 1000 Points

3rd Place: 800 Points

4th Place: 600 Points

5th Place: 400 Points

6th Place: 200 Points
Registration must be completed through a Google Form that will be provided to the Greek Week Chairs by Michelle Alpizar on Thursday March 21, 2019 and will be due back by Thursday March 28, 2019 by 5p. Late submissions and changes to your team’s registration after the deadline will only be considered in the event of extenuating circumstances and may be subject to point deductions. Team members registered for the breakout sessions who do not attend the event will receive a 1-percentage point deduction toward their team’s overall attendance count and a 2-person count deduction toward their team’s breakout sessions attendance count.

Each team member observed by the Executive Board or an event volunteer to be inappropriately using electronics will receive a point deduction toward their team’s attendance. Should the incident occur during the keynote speaker’s presentation, 0.5-percentage points will be deducted from the overall attendance count; during the breakout sessions, 0.5-person count from the breakout sessions attendance count.

In addition to their attendance not counting, each team member asked to leave will receive a point deduction toward their team’s attendance. Should the incident occur during the keynote speaker’s presentation, 1-percentage point will be deducted from the overall attendance count; during the breakout sessions, 1-person count from the breakout sessions attendance count.

Location: Housing Lawn

This year, the Greek Community has partnered with the FAU Beyond Food Program, Boca Helping Hands and Peggy Adams Animal Rescue.
The Beyond Food Program is a holistic program that utilizes the expertise of various on and off campus resources in assisting FAU students in need to raise their food security level to persist toward academic success. Furthermore, based on the availability of donations we would like to serve any FAU student by providing a 3-day supply of canned and/or non-perishable food to those experiencing food insecurity.
Boca Helping Hands provides food, medical and financial assistance to meet basic human needs as well as education, job training and guidance to create self-sufficiency
The Mission of the Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League of the Palm Beaches Incorporated is to provide shelter to lost, homeless and unwanted animals, to provide spay and neuter and other medical services for companion animals, and to care for, protect, and find quality homes for homeless and neglected companion animals, to advocate animal welfare, community involvement and education to further the bond between people and animals.

Teams should collect cans and non-perishables to donate to the FAU Beyond Food Program and Boca Helping Hands; Labeled boxes for each team will be stored in location TBD and will be available to drop off goods during normal office hours.
Items can include the following:

1. canned beans
2. dry beans
3. peanut butter, or other nut butters
4. rolled oats

IV. The “Greek week goes Viral” theme must be incorporated in each team’s performance.

V. Song choice
   a. Each team must submit a list of song/video requests to Wade Cooper; submissions will be accepted starting Monday, February 18th at 6:00 pm. Song choices will be approved on a first-come, first-served basis. Teams will be notified if the songs on their list are approved, unapproved, or already claimed. Teams must contact Wade Cooper via email or the request will not be accepted.
   b. A maximum of 10 songs can be reserved.
   c. One of the reserved songs on each team’s list must be a Viral tune from their team’s chosen Viral video.
   d. Explicit language in the performance’s music is prohibited. Any violations to this rule will be subject to point deductions.
   e. Two formats of each team’s final cut of the music for their performance is due to Wade Cooper by Wednesday, March 27th at 12:00 pm. The music must all be condensed to one track and not exceed 10 minutes.
      i. Music file sent via email
      ii. Music file on a USB/flash drive

VI. Choreographers from outside of each team members may NOT be used. Any violations to this rule will be subject to point deductions.

VII. Length of performance
   a. Each team will be allotted a maximum of 3 minutes to set up, 10 minutes to perform, and 2 minutes to breakdown.
   b. Each team’s video will be played during their 3-minute set up time.
   c. Any performances that exceed the 10-minute time frame will be subject to point deductions. No penalties will be incurred if the performance length is under the time limit.

VIII. Judges and Scoring
a. Performances will be scored based on the following:
   i. Overall talent and presentation
   ii. Originality and creativity
   iii. Use of space and organization
   iv. Incorporation of “Greek Week Goes Viral” theme
   v. Adherence to rules and regulations
b. A panel of judges will score all six teams performances.
c. Score sheets will be available for release on Wednesday, March 20th.
d. First, second, and third place performances will be announced at the end of Greeks Got Talent.

IX. Previews
a. Each team must schedule 2 previews of their performance with Wade Cooper (email or text 561-901-1074) between February 26th – March 23rd to ensure all regulations are being met and followed.
b. The performance does not have to be final or complete for either preview.
c. Along with the Entertainment Director, any Executive Board member may observe a team’s performance to ensure its content is appropriate and adhering to the stated rules and guidelines. All Executive Board members have the right to suggest any changes they deem necessary.
d. Teams must request any additional stage equipment they want to reserve, such as the microphone, prior to or during their last performance preview.
e. Failure by a team to schedule or conduct the necessary performance previews may result in point deductions or performance disqualification from Greek Week Dance.

X. Dress Rehearsal (Final Preview)
a. All teams must participate in a mandatory dress rehearsal on Wednesday, April 1, 2019 at 3pm at the Carole and Barry Kaye Performing Arts Auditorium.
b. Wade Cooper will schedule a time slot for each team to rehearse between 3pm -6pm. Each team will have exactly 30 minutes from the start of their allotted time to enter the auditorium, block the performance, and exit the auditorium.
c. Each team must have a representative present to establish the team’s lighting cues and production needs. This representative will also be the team’s sound/light person during their performance at Greeks Got Talent.
d. Failure by a team to have sufficient representation at the dress rehearsal may result in point deductions or performance disqualification from Greeks Got Talent.
e. Rehearsals are subject to any and all mandates of the Executive Board.
f. Performances may not be altered after approval from the Executive Board. If a team performs unapproved material at Greeks Got Talent, their performance will be subject to point deductions or disqualification.
G. Any material added or changes made after each team’s final preview must be presented at the GGT dress rehearsal and reviewed by the Executive Board. Any new material is subject to potential removal from the performance if it is deemed inappropriate.

XI. Final Performance

a. Doors for the event will open at 6:00 pm and the show will start at 7:00 pm.
b. GWD Captains will meet with Wade Cooper at 6:45 pm.
c. Each team’s sound/light person must be in the production box for the entirety of their performance.
d. No clothing, props, or items portraying or displaying vulgar themes, images, or messages will be permitted. See-through clothing and shorts that show the rear are prohibited. Glitter is strictly prohibited. Any violations may result in point deductions or performance disqualification from Greeks Week Dance.
e. Inclusions of profanity, lewd conduct, obscene gestures or scenes (i.e. disrespecting other chapters), or any other inappropriate acts or behaviors will result in disqualification from the event and possible punitive actions by the FS Life Office.
f. Projection screens and videos during the performances are prohibited, except for showing each team’s video immediately prior to their performance.

Points will be awarded based on the rankings determined by the judges’ scores and attendance.
