CONSTITUTION OF THE INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL OF FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY

PREAMBLE
We, the members of the Interfraternity Council of Florida Atlantic University, in order to promote and perpetuate the best interest of Florida Atlantic University and the fraternal organizations therein, to encourage the most complete intellectual, emotional, physical, and social development of our fraternity men, to ensure that the fraternities establish high standards, and to foster cooperation among said fraternities, University authorities and our community, we do ordain and establish this Constitution of the Interfraternity Council of Florida Atlantic University.

The Interfraternity Council of Florida Atlantic University does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, race, national, or ethnic origin, religion, disability, or sexual orientation/preference.

ARTICLE I: NAME
The name of this organization shall be "The Interfraternity Council at Florida Atlantic University" and hereinafter shall be abbreviated as "IFC." All organizations that have fulfilled the requirements of one of the two types of membership in IFC shall hereinafter be referred to as "fraternities."

ARTICLE II: SCOPE OF AUTHORITY
The IFC’s scope of authority will include both administrative and legislative policies. The scope will also include the course of action taken by the IFC. By the virtue of authority vested in it by the Constitution, the Council will have the authority to decide policy that is deemed necessary pertaining to the chapters represented by the Council.

The Council has authority to administer these policies, adjudicate these policies, except those that are of institutional policy, by means of a judicial board, and administer the appropriate action of these policies.

The Council will strive for the continued improvement of inter- and intra-relations, standards, and self-governance. The IFC shall abide by all University rules and regulations and state and federal laws. The IFC’s authority is derived from recognition by the Office of Student Involvement and Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life.

ARTICLE III: MISSION
We, the members of the IFC at Florida Atlantic University, join to promote each organization’s purpose, to reach community expectation and high standards, to create social and personal development, to exhibit responsibility to self and others, to develop intellectual growth and genuine learning, to foster global citizenship and engagement, to strengthen relationship building and to expand innovative thought and actions.

ARTICLE IV: PURPOSE
A. It shall be the purpose of this Council to:
   a. Act as the governing body of all North-American Interfraternity Conference (NIC) recognized men’s social fraternities and all other approved men’s fraternal organizations at Florida Atlantic University.
   b. Organize and market community wide recruitment initiatives each fall and spring semester.
   c. Promote positive Interfraternity competition in scholarship, service, philanthropy and any other events that may be deemed advisable for the betterment of the participants, fraternities, the University and the community.
   d. Encourage cooperation and harmony among member fraternities.
ARTICLE VI: MEETINGS

Students, except if specifically exempted by law.

The Interfraternity Council shall be in full compliance with all Federal and State nondiscrimination and equal opportunity laws, orders and regulations. The Interfraternity Council shall not discriminate against a Student Officer, member or prospective member on any basis identified in FAU Regulation 5.010, except if specifically exempted by law. The Interfraternity Council shall be open to all currently enrolled FAU Students, except if specifically exempted by law.

A. Upon IFC and University approval, all recognized undergraduate fraternal organizations, as defined in Article I Section A of the IFC Bylaws, should hold membership in the IFC. The two (2) types of membership in the IFC shall be the following:
   a. Associate Membership: Pertains to fraternities that have been colonized, but not yet charted by their Inter/National organization.
   b. Full Membership: Pertains to charted fraternities, in good standing, with both their Inter/National organization and Florida Atlantic University.

B. Petition for Recognition: Any organization, new or pre-existing, wishing to become recognized by the IFC must petition the council to receive its recognition.
   a. The IFC has the right to dismiss a petition based on an executive vote. However this vote can be overturned based on a majority vote of the member chapters in the council.

ARTICLE VI: MEETINGS

A. General Meetings
   a. General meetings of the IFC shall be held at 2:00 p.m. each Wednesday or on a day/time that is established at the beginning of each academic term. Regular meetings will be held each week of the semester, with the exception of fraternity recruitment, days on which the University is closed, and as the executive council deems necessary.
   b. Delegate meetings are open meetings.

B. Special Meetings
   a. Special meetings may be called at any time by the IFC president.
   b. The IFC president must call a meeting at the request of any two member fraternities and/or the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life.
   c. Notice of the special meetings shall be given in two forms of communication (phone and e-mail) to the president of each fraternity at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting.
   d. Special meetings are closed meetings.

C. Executive Meetings
   a. Executive meetings of the IFC shall be held once a week at a specified time, with the exception of fraternity recruitment, final examination period, Greek Week, Homecoming and designated University Holidays or as the Executive Council deems necessary.
   b. Executive Meetings are open meetings.

D. Presidential Roundtables
   a. Presidential Roundtables of the IFC shall be held once a month, with all chapter presidents and the president of the IFC.
   b. Presidential Roundtables are closed meetings.

E. Officer Roundtables
I. Attendance

- Any fraternity who has two (2) or more unexcused absences in a semester at an IFC delegate meeting will lose voting privileges for that semester. The chapter will be fined $50 per absence, unexcused, after, but not including, the first two (2) absences.

- An unexcused absence is defined as:
  - Not contacting the IFC Vice President of Administration Affairs twenty-four (24) hours in advance about attendance (requires a phone call and an e-mail to their executive e-mail address)

F. Order of Meeting

- Robert’s Rules of Order shall govern the procedure of all meetings of the IFC. In cases where a conflict exists between the Constitution or Bylaws and Robert’s Rules of Order, the Constitution and Bylaws shall take precedence.

- The below order of business may be changed at any time at the discretion of the president/presiding officer.

- The order of business at all regular meetings will be:
  - Roll Call – the Vice President of Administrative Affairs will take Attendance
  - Approval of Last Meetings Minutes – the approval will be asked for by the President
  - Guest Speakers – Any speakers having registered with the Vice President of Administrative Affairs will present his/her information to the delegation
  - Officers’ Reports – Starting with the Vice President of Administrative Affairs and ending with the President, each officer will report on all issues pertaining to their position and list relevant activities since the last meeting
  - Advisor’s Report – A member of the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life or designee will report on issues pertaining to the IFC, Fraternity and Sorority Life Affairs, and the surrounding community. The Advisor will also list relevant activities since the last meeting.
  - Old Business – Motions and/or legislation that were tabled from a previous meeting
  - Elections – If applicable
  - New Business – New motions and/or legislation to be considered by the delegation.
  - Announcements - Announcements must pertain to council, campus or community activities.
  - Adjournment

G. Presiding Office’s Power

- The presiding officer shall cast the determining vote in the event of a tie on the motion requiring a simple majority vote.

H. Voting Privileges and Procedure

- Full members shall have one (1) vote during the delegate meetings. In order to vote, the full member must be in good standing.

- Associate members have a voice but no vote in all IFC official business, except for IFC executive board elections.

- Only IFC delegates that are registered with the Executive Vice President shall have voting privileges.

- IFC executive board members are entitled to an un-bias say but have no voting privileges.

- All votes shall be counted via fraternity roll call ARTICLE VIII: ELECTIONS

A. In order to be eligible for an officer position, candidates must meet requirements as specified by Regulation 4.006. All officers must be currently enrolled degree-seeking FAU students who meet the University's minimum qualifications for student officers, which is a 2.5 cumulative GPA and be registered for 12 credit hours for undergraduate students, and a 3.25 cumulative GPA and 6 credit hours for graduate students.       i. Based on applications and interviews, the members of the current IFC Executive Board whom conducted interviews shall create a slate of officers, with advisement from the IFC advisor(s).
      ii. Only one man may be slated for each position and each man may only be slated for one position.
      iii. If the interview panel feels that no applicant is qualified for a position, or if there are is not a sufficient number of applicants, a position may be left vacant on the slate.
      iv. The list of the slate will be made available to the IFC Delegate Body at least one week prior to the election.
   d. Announcement of the Slate
      i. The current President, or the next highest ranking officer in the event that the current president is also on the incoming slate, will preside over the announcement of the slate.
      ii. The announcement of the slate shall occur at a meeting at least one week prior to the election.
      iii. Speech: The slate will have a combined fifteen minutes to introduce themselves and their vision for the upcoming year.
      iv. Question & Answer: Following the slate’s speech, the delegate body and any fraternity members in attendance will then be able to ask relevant questions to the slate.
      v. Discussion: Following the questioning of the slate, the slate will be dismissed from the room, and the delegate body and any fraternity members in attendance will then be able to discuss the slate.
   e. Election by Slate
      i. The current President, or the next highest ranking officer in the event that the current president is also on the incoming slate, will preside over the elections meeting.
      ii. Voting: The delegate body will vote for the slate by a secret, written ballot. Quorum must be present in order for the vote to occur. A simple majority will be required to elect the slate.
iii. The presiding officer will count the votes.
iv. The slate will be brought back into the room and the results of the vote will be announced.
v. If the slate was passed, then the results are final. If the slate did not pass, elections for individual positions will take place.
f. Elections for Individual Positions
   i. In the event that the slate did not pass, elections for individual positions will be held.
   ii. The current President, or the next highest-ranking officer in the event that the current president is also running for a position on the incoming board, will preside over the elections meeting.
   iii. All eligible candidates who appropriately applied for a position will be allowed to run in the election.
   iv. Eligible individuals may be considered candidates for more than one position.
v. The elections will be held in the following order:
   1. President
   2. Executive Vice President
   3. Vice President of Recruitment
   4. Vice President of Programming
   5. Vice President of Administrative Affairs

     ii. Bids may be offered immediately following the Open House event that begins the official IFC Recruitment Week each semester.
   b. Bids can only be given to those men who are in good standing and are enrolled at Florida Atlantic University.
     i. IFC encourages its member fraternities to know their national policies and ensure that any individual to which they plan to offer a bid meets these standards in regards to GPA, enrolled credit hours, degree-seeking, undergraduate or graduate, etc.
     ii. The Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life can confirm a student’s GPA, enrolled credit hours, and other registration status for the fraternity so long as the student has either registered for recruitment on ICS or signed a Grade Release Waiver.
   c. IFC encourages its member fraternities to continue recruitment all year long, not just during formal/organized recruitment.
     i. Year-round open recruitment is defined as any date after the last day of the official IFC Recruitment Week (also known as Bid Day) until the last day of classes for that semester.
d. Fraternities must update their official fraternity roster on their ICS chapter account within one week of a new member accepting a bid.

E. Miscellaneous Recruitment Infractions
   a. Alcohol is prohibited at any and all fraternity recruitment functions.
   b. Fraternity recruitment functions may not take place at any establishment generating more than half of annual gross sales from alcohol, also known as taverns.
   c. Fraternities will not steal, desecrate, vandalize or in any other way interfere with the recruitment of any other fraternity.
   d. No uninvited active members of a fraternity will be permitted to enter another fraternity’s recruitment functions with the exception of the Interfraternity Council executive board officers.
   e. Any violation of the policies listed in this section will result in Referral to the IFC Judicial Board and Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life.
   f. No woman, affiliated or unaffiliated shall participate in men’s recruitment events or membership selection.

F. Violations
   a. Any violation of the policies listed in this section will result in an automatic $500 fine to be paid to the Interfraternity Council and an automatic referral to the IFC Judicial Board and Dean of Student Affairs.

ARTICLE VII: EXPANSION
The Interfraternity Council will work in conjunction with the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life on all IFC expansion endeavors.

ARTICLE VIII: RISK MANAGEMENT
A. The FIPG, Inc. Risk Management Policy includes provisions which shall apply to all Interfraternity Council fraternity entities and all levels of membership. Any violation of these risk management policies will result in referral to the IFC Judicial Board and Dean of Student Affairs.
B. The Interfraternity Council will follow the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life Policy Statement on Alcohol and the Florida Atlantic University Student Code of Conduct. Every member chapter of the Interfraternity Council will be held accountable to the policy and the Student Code of Conduct.
C. Hazing
   a. The Intefraternity Council will follow the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life Policy on Hazing.
   b. The Interfraternity Council will abide by all Federal, State and Local laws and FAU Regulations and policies, including but not limited to Regulation 4.007 Student Code of Conduct, Regulation 4.001 Code of Academic Integrity, Regulation 4.006 Student Government & Student Organizations, FAU’s Alcohol and Drug Policy, and all requirements as outlined in the Student Organization Manual.
   c. The Interfraternity Council agrees to abide by the Florida Anti-Hazing Law in the Student Code of Conduct and the Student Organization Manual.
D. Personal Abuse
   a. No fraternity, colony, or student shall conduct nor condone acts of personal abuse or harassment.
   b. Acts of personal abuse are defined as:
      i. Verbal abuse of any person including lewd, indecent, or obscene expressions of conduct.
      ii. Physical abuse or threat of physical abuse to any person.
   c. Acts of harassment are defined as:
i. Behavior directed at a member of the university community which would cause severe emotional distress, intimidation, or coercion to a reasonable person in the victim's position, or would place a reasonable person in the victim's position in fear of bodily injury or death. This definition, however, shall not be interpreted to abridge the right of any member of the university community to freedom of expression protected by the 1st amendment of the United States Constitution and any other applicable law.

ii. Failure to respect the privacy of other individuals.

iii. Retaliation against or harassment of complainant(s) or other person(s) alleging misconduct.

E. Sexual Abuses & Harassment
   a. Florida Atlantic University will not tolerate or condone any form of sexist or sexually abusive behavior on the part of its members, whether physical, mental or emotional. This is to include any actions which are demeaning to women or men, such as verbal harassment.
   b. Florida Atlantic University will not tolerate sexual assault in any form.

F. Education
   a. Each fraternity shall annually instruct its members and alumni on this policy

ARTICLE IX: JUDICIAL PROCEDURES
A. Investigative Powers
   a. The Interfraternity Council Executive Board shall have the power to investigate infractions of the IFC Constitution and Bylaws.
   b. The IFC Executive Board shall refer any violation of the IFC Constitution and Bylaws to the IFC Judicial Board, by way of the Executive Vice President.

B. Duties of the Executive Vice President
   a. The Executive Vice President or temporary chair shall vote only as a tie-breaker in the case of a tie vote being reached by the Judicial Board.
   b. Should the case involve the Executive Vice President's organization, he will be replaced by the President or President’s designee (any Executive Board Officer who is not a member of said organization).

C. Authority of the Judicial Board
   a. The IFC Judicial Board shall hear cases pertaining to rule violations of the IFC (i.e. recruitment violations, constitution violations, etc.).

D. Judicial Board
   a. The IFC Judicial Board shall be composed of Chapter Presidents of the Interfraternity Council member fraternities. In a case where a Chapter President is unable to attend, the President may send a designee, preferably an executive officer and/or disciplinary chairman.
   b. The IFC Judicial Board may make rulings and take punitive action in cases where the IFC Constitution or Bylaws have been violated.
   c. The IFC Judicial Board member whose organization is being formally charged or is bringing up charges shall not participate as a Justice in any part of the hearing proceedings.
   d. The IFC Judicial Board will maintain confidentiality throughout the judicial process including not just the outcome but all prior discussions and hearing proceedings, unless otherwise shared by the member fraternity involved.

E. Quorum for Judicial Proceedings
   a. Quorum must be met to hold an IFC judicial proceeding
   b. Quorum for any IFC judicial proceeding shall be 3/4 of the total number of justices who serve on the board and are eligible for that particular hearing.
F. Due Process: In appearing before the Judicial Board, each member fraternity is granted certain rights termed "due process." Those rights include the following:
   a. Right to be notified, in writing, of all charges, as outlined in the IFC Bylaws
   b. Right to present a defense, including the calling of witnesses
   c. Right to question witnesses
   d. Right to be accompanied by an advisor for advisory purposes only, but not for representation
   e. Right to be notified, in writing, of all findings and sanctions imposed, as outlined in the Bylaws
   f. Right to appeal the decision, as outlined in the IFC Bylaws
   g. Right against double jeopardy

G. Judicial Procedure
   a. Incident Reporting & Investigation
      i. Upon receipt of an official complaint against an organization, individual matters that may constitute a violation of University Regulation 4.007 Student Code of Conduct shall be referred to the Dean of Students Office. This does not preclude the possibility of action being judged to be both the organization as well as individual.
      ii. An Incident Report Form and/or written statement must be submitted to the Executive Vice President and shall include the name of the person(s) filing the report, the names and affiliations of those individuals or member fraternities involved, specific type of incident or violation, a detailed chronological description of the incident, names of witnesses or others involved and the date, time and location of the incident. The person filing the report must sign and date the Incident Report Form upon completion/submission.
   b. Letter of Notification
      i. The referred member fraternity will receive a Letter of Notification at least one week in advance of a hearing. The Letter of Notification will be sent to the member fraternity involved in the violation with duplicate copies sent to the fraternity's advisor, the IFC Advisor, and dependent upon the nature of the case, the inter/national fraternity and Dean of Students Office as well. The IFC Judicial Board may elect to proceed with a Formal Judicial Hearing without the presence of the accused organization, provided, however, the required Letter of Notification, as stated above, has been given to the fraternity president and the fraternity president has not provided to the Executive Vice President in advance a satisfactory reason for not being able to meet or reason for absence.
      ii. A Letter of Notification shall include:
         1. A description of the complaint including date, time, and location the violation occurred
         2. The specific charge or violation
         3. Due process rights
         4. Date, time, and location of the judicial hearing
         5. Who should attend the judicial hearing
         6. Procedures if there is a conflict with the selected date or time of the hearing
         7. A brief description of judicial proceedings
         8. Who to contact for further information and/or questions
   c. Informal Judicial Hearing: Upon a finding of the IFC Executive Vice President that a filed Incident Report Form has merit, he shall offer the charged member fraternity the opportunity to participate in an Informal Judicial Hearing.
      i. In cases in which the charged member fraternity accepts an Informal Judicial Hearing, the IFC Executive Vice President shall meet with a representative of the charged member fraternity to discuss the allegations of the Incident Report Form. Within three
(3) business days of the Informal Judicial Hearing, the IFC Executive Vice President may dismiss the allegation with a finding of no violations or provide the charged member fraternity with his finding of violations and recommendation for a resolution through disciplinary sanctions.

ii. The charged member fraternity has three (3) business days to accept or reject the terms of resolution.
   1. If the charged member fraternity accepts the resolution, the charged member fraternity waives all rights of appeal and the outcome is final.
   2. If the charged member fraternity rejects the resolution, a Formal Judicial Hearing will be convened to hear the case.

iii. The IFC Executive Vice President should not recommend suspension or loss of IFC recognition through an Informal Judicial Hearing. Should the IFC Executive Vice President believe suspension or loss of recognition is warranted, the case should automatically be referred to a Formal Judicial Hearing.

d. Information Session
   i. The charged member fraternity and advisor, if applicable, have the right to inspect all of the information that will be presented against the fraternity at least three (3) business days before the Formal Judicial Hearing. The Executive Vice President and IFC Advisor also have the right to review any information that the charged member fraternity intends to use at least three (3) business days before the Hearing. This meeting also serves as a deadline that new evidence can be submitted by either the charged member fraternity or the accuser.
   ii. Any additional information not shared or exchanged at the Information Session may be accepted for consideration by the IFC Justices at their discretion.

e. Formal Judicial Hearing
   i. Any alleged violations of the IFC Constitution & Bylaws require a judicial proceeding, unless otherwise outlined in this document.
   ii. Judicial proceedings may only include the Executive Vice President, justices, the accused fraternity, accusing fraternity, and Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life staff.
   iii. In order to record the procedures of the hearing, the Executive Vice President can appoint a secretary to take minutes during the hearings or a recording device may be used to record the entire hearing.
   iv. The accused organization may choose to have an advisor present at the hearing. Such advisor(s) however, may only discuss matters directly with the organization and may not actively participate in the conduct hearing. The advisor must be registered as the official chapter advisor of the member fraternity.
   v. The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life, or their designee, may overturn a decision in any judicial proceeding in which it has been determined that decision was based on factors not related to the matter at hand.
   vi. Outline of the Hearing Process:
      1. Presentation of alleged charges, violations, and investigatory evidence against the charged member fraternity shall be presented by the IFC Executive Vice President
         a. Charged member fraternity may ask questions
         b. IFC Justices may ask questions
      2. Presentation of charged member fraternity
         a. IFC Justices may ask questions
      3. Calling of Witnesses
         a. Charged member fraternity may ask questions
b. IFC Justices may ask questions
4. Charged member fraternity may give final statement
5. IFC Justices deliberate in a closed session to determine findings of responsibility and if necessary, appropriate sanction(s).

f. Letter of Decision & Sanctions
i. After charges have been filed against a Fraternity, and the Fraternity charged has been found in violation of the offense by the IFC Judicial Board, the IFC Judicial Board will determine appropriate sanction(s) where necessary and the Executive Vice President will send a Letter of Decision & Sanctions. The Letter of Decision & Sanctions will be sent within three days of the hearing.

ii. The Letter of Decision & Sanctions will include the following:
   1. Date of the hearing
   2. Specific violation charged
   3. Decision of the Judicial Board
   4. Sanction(s)
   5. Timeline and conditions of the sanction(s)
   6. Appeal process procedures

iii. The IFC Judicial Board has the power to impose sanctions such as but not limited to:
   1. A monetary fine commensurate with the amount of physical damage incurred.
   2. Some measure of community service.
   3. Removal from or mandatory attendance at campus activities, programs, or services.
   4. Interfraternity Council Probation: Under this probation, a Fraternity will be held to the following sanctions:
      a. Fraternity will have no vote in IFC formal business.
      b. Fraternity will be required to pay 200% of their required dues for the semester (i.e. “double dues”).
      c. Fraternity will not be able to co-sponsor events/programs with other organizations, with the exception events/programs that have an educational, risk management, service and/or philanthropic purpose/programs. These events must not take place in venues where alcohol would be present, as well as need to be sponsored through FAU.
      d. Fraternity would not be able to participate in Greek Week.
      e. Fraternity may participate in homecoming but may not be paired with any other organizations
   5. Any probation levied by the IFC Judicial Board may not last longer than 365 days.

iv. Any Fraternity, which is found in violation of an offense while on pre-existing sanction, will be immediately referred to the IFC Judicial Board.

v. If any sanctions imposed by the Judicial Board cross over the terms of office the new Interfraternity Council Judicial Board must honor the old Interfraternity Council Judicial Board’s decision and enforce it.

g. Appeal Procedure
i. All appeals must be typewritten and sent to the Executive Vice President within seven calendar days following receipt of the Letter of Decision & Sanctions.

ii. Appeal considerations shall be limited to:
   1. Unfair hearing (procedure of the hearing that affected the outcome).
   2. New evidence (which could not be presented at the time of the hearing).
3. Severity of the sanction (the sanction is extraordinarily disproportionate to the violation).

iii. The IFC Executive Vice President, President and Advisor will meet to decide if the appeal is justified.

iv. If an appeal is found to be justified, the IFC Executive Board will make a final ruling on the matter.

v. A fraternity cannot appeal an automatic sanction, as defined in the IFC Constitution & Bylaws.

ARTICLE X: SCHEDULE
A. By the second (2) Interfraternity Council Meeting of the semester, each organization is required to turn in a calendar of events to the Vice President of Administrative Affairs.
   a. Included in the calendar, each event must have a name, date, description, and contact information as well as location if possible.
   b. The Interfraternity Council’s goal is to provide a master calendar of events for the organization to have, along with the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life, and to other various sources.

B. Dates of Philanthropy events in which CPA participation is required or encouraged must be submitted to College Panhellenic Association by the end of the first week of classes for review by the CPA Philanthropy Committee to ensure they meet the requirements outlined in the CPA Philanthropy Resolutions.

ARTICLE XI: AMENDMENTS
These Bylaws may be amended by a 2/3 vote of the voting members of the Interfraternity Council, provided notice of the proposed amendment has been given in writing at the preceding regular meeting.

Revised April 2016
