OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

invites you to

Study Abroad

London, England

(June 30 – July 14, 2013)

Study abroad in one of the greatest “world cities” this summer. London is a vibrant and multicultural city rich in culture, energy and ideas.

Academic Program: This summer program is a College of Education Graduate study abroad program offered by the Department of Curriculum, Culture, and Educational Inquiry. The course has been designed to engage the learner in a comparative investigation of educational trends and issues in the USA, United Kingdom, and other European countries. Learners will participate in numerous field experience activities at European sites selected by the learner to support and enhance the cultural exchange component of this unique experience. The academic offering is a Directed Independent Study format that includes telecommuting pre and post international experience, as well as on-site tutorials with the professor in addition to a research component.

Eligibility Requirements: Program is open to graduate students from any discipline with a 3.0 GPA or higher.

Course Description: EDG 6625 Global Perspectives of Curricular Trends Across Nations (3 credit hours). This course focuses on comparing, analyzing, and evaluating curricular trends, issues, pedagogy, and resources in education systems in developing and industrialized nations, and implications for national and global citizenship in the 21st century.

Program Fee: $345.00
The non-refundable program fee should be submitted to the Office of International Programs along with the completed study abroad application.

Program Fee Includes: Application fee, group expenses, CISI insurance, pre-departure orientation, and on-site support staff.

Program Fee Does Not Include: FAU tuition, airfare, London Oyster Card, accommodations, meals, Britrail Pass, cell phone, and spending money. Students make all arrangements after consultation with the professor. Cost is estimated at $2,800.

Financial Aid: Students may be able to use their financial aid for study abroad. The amount of the financial aid awarded and its availability will be determined by the Office of Financial Aid. Students need to have a current FAFSA on file and complete a summer Financial Aid Application in order to apply for funding. Summer financial aid requires that students be registered for a total of 6 credits.
