FAU Education Abroad Scholarship: For FAU degree-seeking students of all nationalities studying abroad for a semester or summer term. $1,000 scholarships are awarded for semester programs and $500 scholarships for summer programs.

The Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship: For U.S. citizens receiving Pell grants studying or interning abroad for at least 28 consecutive days. Students receive up to $5,000 for summer and semester programs and may be eligible for an additional $3,000 of funding through the Critical Need Language Award.

Boren Scholarships & Fellowships: For U.S. citizens interested in studying abroad during the semester, summer, or academic year in a country outside of Western Europe, Canada, Australia, or New Zealand. Awards for undergraduate and graduate students range from $8,000 for a summer program up to $30,000 for an academic year.

Diversity Abroad & CISI Planning Scholarship: For full-time undergraduate students participating on semester program in any country of choice. Student must fulfill the diversity criteria in order to apply and meet financial need as demonstrated by your FASFA. Awards $1500.

Diversity Network Summer Scholarship: For full-time undergraduate students participating on summer program in any country of choice. Student must fulfill the diversity criteria in order to apply. Awards $1000.

Fund for Education Abroad (FEA) Scholarships: For U.S. citizens and permanent residents studying abroad for at least 28 days. Students can be awarded up to $10,000 for a semester or summer term and may be considered for additional funding through special FEA designated scholarships including the Athletes Scholarship, Rainbow Scholarship, and more.

Go Euro: For students of all nationalities completing a study abroad program in Europe and/or Schengen Area countries from an eligible home university. Awards range from €2000 to €500.

Japan Bridging Scholarship: For U.S. citizens enrolled as an undergraduate student studying abroad in Japan for at least three months. Students on semester-long programs receive a $2,500 stipend and those on an academic year program will receive a $4,000 stipend.

Morgan Stanley Scholarship: For U.S. citizens enrolled as an undergraduate student interested in economics and international finance studying in Japan for an academic year. Students are awarded $7,500.

Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO): For undergraduate and graduate exchange students of all nationalities that demonstrate academic excellence and financial need. Awards a monthly stipend of 80,000 Japanese Yen for programs lasting from 8 days to one year.

Shawn Carter Foundation: For U.S. citizens or permanent residents of all backgrounds that exhibit financial need. Students must be 25 years old or younger with a minimum 2.0 GPA. Awards vary from $1,500 to $2,500.

STA Travel: For U.S. Citizens, permanent residents, and DACA students enrolled as an undergraduate for a study abroad program lasting at least 4 weeks. Preference is given to students that studies the host country language, studies in a non-traditional destination where language is not English, and/or the student demonstrates financial need. Awards $2,500.

Ashley Foundation: For students in sophomore standing (30 credit hours) with at least a 3.0 GPA who are studying abroad for at least one full semester. Merit, personal qualities, and/or financial need are considered. Awards $4,000.

Turkish Coalition of America (TCA): For U.S. citizens and permanent residents that are choosing to study abroad or participate in a language program in Turkey, the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (TRNC), or Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH). The scholarship is open to both undergraduates and graduates. Awards range from $500 to $2,000.
Swedish Women’s Educational Association Scholarship: For Florida residents with a project or field study that has a specific emphasis on Sweden or Swedish aspects. This includes studying abroad in Sweden, Swedish language, environmental science, etc. Up to $5,000 may be awarded.

Freeman Asia: For U.S. citizen and permanent resident undergraduates pursuing a first time bachelor degree who demonstrates financial need and a desire to study abroad in Southeast or East Asia; must have 2.8 cumulative GPA or higher. Summer awards are up to $3,000, semester up to $5,000, and academic year students can be awarded up to $7,000.

Critical Language Scholarship (CLS): For U.S. citizen and permanent resident undergraduates or graduates from all majors seeking a non-traditional language study and cultural immersion. This scholarship is fully funded.

Phi Kappa Phi: For undergraduate students of all nationalities with a 3.75 cumulative GPA or higher. Awards $1,000 for semester programs.

DAAD Funding: For U.S citizens, Canadian citizens, or permanent residents seeking to fund their undergraduate, graduate, doctorate, post-doctorate, research or an internship in Germany. Award amounts vary.

Antonio & Felicia Marinelli Scholarship: For Italian American students, either undergraduate or graduate with a 3.5 GPA or higher, studying at the American University of Rome. Student or parent must be a part of the National Italian American Foundation. Awards vary.

Graduate/ Graduating Student Options

Fulbright U.S. Student Program: For U.S. Citizens who are a graduating senior or graduate student that have a desire to pursue designed study/research projects, a graduate degree abroad, or an English Teaching Assistant Program. Programs are fully-funded.

Boren Fellowship: For graduate students who are U.S citizens or a permanent residents, with preference given to those going abroad for at least 6-months or longer. Awards vary from $12,000 to $30,000.

Rhodes Scholarship: For U.S. citizens and permanent residents 24 years old or younger interested in pursuing a graduate degree at Oxford University. Student must complete bachelor’s degree before October 1st in the year following the election period. The scholarship funds two years of graduate study at Oxford including full tuition, expenses, and living stipend.

Marshall Scholarship: For U.S. citizens studying at institutions in the United Kingdom in any field of study at the graduate level. The student must have graduated from an accredited four-year university with a minimum GPA of 3.7. Scholarship covers university fees, cost of living fees, thesis grant, research and daily travel grants, and fares to and from the USA.

Schartzman Scholarship: For undergraduate alumni of all nationalities between the ages of 18-29 at the time of participation to pursue a one-year Master’s Degree at Tsinghua University in Beijing in Public Policy, Economics and Business or International Studies. Award includes tuition, fees, room and board, flights, study tours, books and supplies, laptop and smartphone, health insurance, and a personal stipend.

The George J. Mitchell Scholarship Program: For U.S. Citizens between the ages of 18-29 with a bachelor’s degree seeking one academic year of postgraduate study in any discipline offered by institutions of higher learning in Ireland (study in Northern Ireland is not currently an option through the Mitchell Scholarship). The Mitchell Scholarship Program provides tuition, accommodation, a stipend for living expenses and travel.

---

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Visit: www.fau.edu/goabroad
Email: goabroad@fau.edu
Call: #561-297-1208