Summer Term 3
June 24 – August 4, 2012

Berlin is a vibrant multi-cultural European metropolis with old world beauty and hip, modern scenes. Forever evolving, Berlin provides visitors with dazzling achievements of the 21st century against the backdrop of its past: Prussian and pre-WWII architecture stand back to back with chic, modern buildings and innovative uses of space, both old and new.

Academic Program: This course explores the culture of past and present Berlin through its literature, urban sites and relevant cultural events and is recommended for students interested in German literature, culture and society. With Berlin as the classroom, students will have a first hand experience of the city's present day cultural life and simultaneously be able to explore the cultural commemoration of its past. An overnight excursion to Dresden, as well as daytrips to the Kleist Museum in Frankfurt/Oder and a guided boat tour through Spreewald, will allow students to personally experience the rich cultural and historical phenomena explored in the course.

Eligibility Requirements: Program is open to undergraduate and graduate students with an overall GPA of 2.5 or higher.

Courses: All courses count towards German minor. Students must take two courses (Culture and Society course and one language course).

GET 3956 Berlin: Culture and Society (mandatory)

GER 3952 German Conversation

GER 2952 Intensive German Language: Beginner – advanced (fulfills language requirement)

Program Fee: $3,200

Program Fee Includes: Housing (double occupancy studio apartments w/ private kitchen and bath), group excursions to Dresden (overnight), Frankfurt/Oder and Spreewald including, local transportation, two group meals, museum visits, textbook, pre-departure orientation, CISI health insurance, and on-site support staff.

Program Fee Does Not Include: Airfare, FAU tuition (out-of-state tuition extra), most meals, books, and spending money.

Application Deadline: February 15, 2012 or as space permits

Financial Aid: Students may be able to use their financial aid for study abroad. The amount of the financial aid awarded and its availability will be determined by the Office of Financial Aid. Students need to have a current FAFSA on file and complete a summer Financial Aid Application in order to apply for funding.
