As the only key comprehensive and co-established university of the Province and Ministry, Hebei University played an important and special role in the national education project. It is located in the outskirts of Beijing, which need only 30 minutes to go to Beijing by light rail, 1-1.5 hours by train or car. The predecessor of Hebei University is Tianjin Business University, which is established by the French Jesuits, then it experienced several periods, including Tianjin Business Institute, Jinggu University, Tianjin Normal Institute, Tianjin Normal University. The name of Hebei University is confirmed in 1960, and it moved the national historical and cultural city —— Baoding in 1970.

The construction and development of Hebei University is supported by Hebei Province Government all the time, and be supported by Education Ministry and Financial Ministry in 2002. On November 2005, Hebei Province Government and Education Ministry signed co-established contract of Hebei University.
Hebei University contained 192 hectares and its building area is 1,000,000 centiares, which including Old Campus, New Campus and Medical School, etc. Hebei University has fine scenery campuses, excellent school-running conditions, and the only university press in Hebei Province. The library of Hebei University collects 3,900,000 documents, which is the 1st place of all libraries in Hebei Province. About 7,000 antiques and 600,000 plants and animals specimens are collected in Hebei University Museum, which is the first-class museum among national universities. As one of the top 100 hospitals in China, its affiliated Hospital covers medical care, teaching, research, prevention care, and recovery function.

Hebei University covered 30 colleges and 5 common teaching departments. It also has 86 undergraduate majors, which distributed in 10 subjects except agriculture science; 7 doctor's degree programs on first-grade subjects, 35 on second-grade subjects, and 30 master's degree programs on first-grade subjects, 187 on second-grade subjects, 19 professional master's degree programs; the master degree programs distributed in 11 subjects except military science, the doctor's degree programs distributed in 8 subjects that covered engineering, history, education, literature, natural science, economics, philosophy and law. There are 8,000 faculty members in Hebei University, and 1/4 of the doctor's degree. Hebei University has 41,000 full-time undergraduate students, 5,500 full-time doctor and master students and 350 short or long term international students.
Hebei University attaches importance to international cooperation and exchanges. It has established friendly relations with more than 80 universities and educational & research institutions of other countries, such as USA, Japan, Canada, Russia, Britain, France, Korea, Mongolia, Kazakhstan, Australia and Malaysia. Especially in recent years, hundreds of experts from over ten countries were invited to teach, give short-term lectures, and conduct cooperative research. A great many of international academic conferences, which were of high level and high standard, were held in succession, including: Machine learning and cybernetics international conference, International fine chemistry and functional polymer seminar, Ancient Chinese literary theory seminar, The annual meeting of Asian society of fuzzy system, Takiji Kobayashi international seminar.

Hebei University is one of the first batch of Universities that enroll international students in China since 1956. Education for international students covers a wide range of subjects, from language training programs to degree courses for the bachelor, master and doctor. More than 2,000 international students from 21 different countries have studied in Hebei University in different majors. Some of our key subjects, Chinese language and culture, International Business, Chinese Philology, Chinese Classical Literature, Analytical Chemistry, Polymer Chemistry and Chemistry, Zoology, Optics Engineering, formed advantageous subjects system of Hebei University.

For the past few years, in order to focus on multi-lingual education and coordinate with foreign partners, Hebei University has built up 5 language centers in Britain, Mongolia, south Korea, Russia and Malaysia, which have become a perfect communicative link to develop a series of friendly cooperation and exchanges. Hebei University got the right to accept the students who obtained the Chinese government scholarship plans. And Hebei University also has the right to hold the new HSK test for the students. By the approval of Hanban\Confucius institute headquarters, Hebei University established a Confucius institute in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil In October, 2010.

Hebei University takes the role of the important bridge and window of international cultural and educational exchanges in Hebei province. More and more foreign students will improve their Chinese language level and understand Chinese cultural better through the wonderful experiences of learning in this university.

To further improve the international atmosphere of language education, Hebei University recruits nearly 40 foreign teachers each year from the United States, Britain, Russia, France, Japan, Korea, Philippines and other countries, which provides foreign language learners with outstanding faculty. The foreign teachers of our university won "Hebei Friendship Award" for many years in succession and have made outstanding contributions in the field of Chinese-foreign language and cultural communication.

Since 2003, our university has officially started transnational training program. Thus far, it has sent more than 300 teachers abroad in batches for short-term training and studying.

Over a hundred Chinese-teacher volunteers and teachers have been sent to Australia, France, Russia, South Korea, Japan, Mongolia, Thailand, Indonesia, Nepal, Egypt, Sudan and other countries.

Learn more about the world and let the world know more about China. Multilingual university education is the important factor to enhance one university's degree of internationalization, and is the only way to reach international understanding and cooperation. Hebei University will constantly work to achieve this goal.

Visa Application

You may apply for your Chinese Visa at the Chinese Embassy/Consulate in your home country. When applying for your visa, please remember to bring along with you:

1. your valid passport;
2. the original copy of the university’s admission notification;
3. A Visa Application Form for Foreign Students Studying in China (also known as the JW201/JW202 form).

Do make sure that your letter of admission and your JW202 form is handed back to you together with your passport after obtaining your Chinese visa. You will need these documents to apply for your Residence Permit after your arrival in Baoding.
International Students who will be studying in China are required to obtain a Student Visa, also termed as ‘X’ Visa. Important: The Student Visa/’ X’ Visa will only be valid for 30 days after your arrival. You must apply for a Residence Permit within these 30 days in order to obtain a legal status in China at Baoding Police Station.

You are discouraged from arriving in China in a head of time due to the short time limit of your visa. Furthermore, you are not eligible to apply for a Residence Permit until you are a registered student of HBU, after the day of registration.

⭐ Housing Arrangements

Students are required to arrive in Baoding no later than the day of registration (the registration date is written on admission letter). You are suggested to arrive in China during the day of registration. Those who will be arriving late (no later than 2 weeks after the day of registration) must write a letter to the Division of International Students via fax (+86-312-5022648) or email (studyinhbu@hotmail.com), informing the staffs regarding the reasons of their late arrival.

On-campus housing at the International Student Apartment (Bailou in Pinyin) will be available to students on the day of registration.

Note: There are a limited number of places for international students who want to live on the University campus.
★ Finances

There are several banks near Hebei University where you can set up a bank account after you have arrived in Baoding. If you are planning to convert foreign currencies into RMB, the banks in Baoding accept the foreign currencies of:

Pound Sterling; Hong Kong Dollar; American Dollar; Euro; Japanese Yen; Canadian Dollar; Australian Dollar; etc.

To be on a safe side, we recommend students to carry the amount of cash that is enough to cover their monthly living expenses.

Our estimation for the average cost of living per month in Baoding is 2,500 RMB (housing, food and transportation included).

★ Have a Health Check

You also need to have a thorough medical check-up after you arrived at Baoding according to the regulation of Police Station; the fee is about 300 RMB.

★ Required Travel Documents

Do make sure that you keep at least 2 photocopies of your important documents.

Below is the checklist of important documents that you must carry with you to Baoding:

1. Valid passport and visa
2. Enough cash for your tuition fees payment and some kinds of handling charges.
3. Passport size photos (at least 6 copies)

You may also consider bringing these documents with you if you deem them necessary:

- School transcripts
- Personal bank statement
- Reference/Recommendation letters
★Getting to HBU from the Airport

The most convenient way to get to HBU from the airport is by highway bus. The regular bus time-table is:
- T3 Terminal Building, 1st floor, No.3 gate for ticket, No.1 gate for aboard;
- T2 Terminal Building, 1st floor, No.15 gate for ticket and aboard;

Launching Time:
- 10:00, 11:00, 13:00, 14:00, 17:30, 19:00, 20:00, 21:00

Run Time: About 3.5 hours                  Ticket Price: 85 RMB

The terminal station of highway bus to Baoding is Baoding Train Station. The best way of getting to HBU is taking Taxi (inform the driver to the Main Campus of HBU); the fee is about 15 RMB. We provide pick-up service for the students that come to HBU for the first time.

★Registration of your residence at local police station

In accordance with Rules For The Implementation of The Law of the People’s Republic of China on Control of the Entry and Exit of Aliens, you must report and register your address within 24 hours upon your arrival to the local police station. If you live in a hotel temporarily, you do not need to do theses until you find a permanent accommodation. Failing to register accommodation to the local police station will be served a warning or fined up to 500 RMB per day.
Medical Insurance/ Health Plan

All students are required to be medically insured throughout their entire planned period of study. Students must at least be insured with Accidental Injuries and Hospitalization medical coverage. Keep in mind that students who do not have a valid medical insurance/health plan are not allowed to register.

You are required to purchase the Comprehensive Insurance Plan of Foreign Students provided by Ping An insurance company on the day of registration, which has been recognized and recommended by the Chinese Ministry of Education.

There will be a ‘Ping An Insurance Booth’ at the registration site where you can purchase your medical insurance/health plan.

Please refer to the attachment about the details regarding the insurance plans offered by Ping An.
