Jerusalem & Galilee, Israel

Excavating Owls: FAU in Israel
FAU Faculty-led Program
Summer: June 8 – July 14, 2018

This program spends the first 5 days in Jerusalem where the group will visit archaeological sites and museums, to learn about archaeological artifacts and excavation techniques. The group will then travel to Galilee where the remainder of the program takes place. Students will gain hands-on experience in field archaeology by participating fully in the excavation of an ancient village site in northern Israel on the hilltop above the Sea of Galilee. In addition to daily fieldwork, students will also participate in processing finds, preserving finds, class sessions on archaeology and history, and field trips to sites and museums.

Eligibility and Requirements:
- Overall GPA of 2.5 or higher for undergraduate students.
- Prerequisites: Permission from Faculty-leader, Dr. McCane.

Course Offerings:
- HIS 4957: Archaeological Fieldwork in Israel (3 credits)
- HIS 4930: History and Archaeology of Israel (3 credits)

Program Highlights:
- Collaborate with students from 6 countries on an international excavation.
- Explore a variety of archaeological sites and museums.

Application Deadline: Thursday, February 15, 2018 (with $200 administrative fee)

Program Costs: $4,260.00

Included:
- Lodging and all meals.
- Group excursions and field trips with local transportation and tour guide.
- CISI international health insurance.

Not Included: Required group airfare (estimated $1,400), FAU tuition (in state/out of state rates apply), $200 administrative fee, snacks, and personal spending money.

For Additional Information:
Faculty-leader: Dr. Byron McCane, Department of History, bmccane@fau.edu
Study Abroad Advisor: Madison McShane, Education Abroad, mmcshane@fau.edu

Visit www.fau.edu/goabroad for additional program details & online application.