London, England
Global Perspectives of Education Across Nations
FAU Faculty-led Program
Summer: June 9 – June 24, 2018

This program offers graduate students the opportunity to engage in a comparative investigation of educational trends and issues in the USA, United Kingdom, and other European countries as they explore a vibrant and multicultural city. The academic offering is a Directed Independent Study format that includes telecommuting pre and post international experience, as well as on-site tutorials with the professor in addition to a research component. Students will focus on comparing, analyzing, and evaluating curricular trends, issues, pedagogy, and resources in education systems in developing and industrialized nations, and implications for national and global citizenship in the 21st century.

Eligibility and Requirements:
- Open to graduate students in all disciplines with an overall GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Course Offering:
- EDG 6625: Global Perspectives of Curricular Trends Across Nations (3 credits)

Program Highlights:
- Participate in numerous field experience activities at European sites selected by the learner to support and enhance the cultural exchange component.

EXTENDED
Application Deadline: Thursday, March 15, 2018 (with $100 administrative fee)

Program Costs: $475

Included:
- Group expenses & CISI health insurance

Not Included: FAU tuition (in state/out of state rates apply), $100 administrative fee, airfare, accommodations, meals, London Oyster Card, transportation pass, and personal spending money. Total estimated expenses: $3,800.

For Additional Information:
Faculty-leader: Dr. Roberta Weber, Department of Curriculum, Culture, & Educational Inquiry, rweber@fau.edu
Study Abroad Advisor: Madison McShane, Education Abroad, mmcshane@fau.edu

Visit www.fau.edu/goabroad for additional program details & online application.