Cremona, Italy
Florida Atlantic University/Cremo
International Music Academy & Competition
Summer 2017, Term III

This program will offer students the opportunity to earn academic credit from FAU while studying at the Cremona International Music Academy and Competition with international distinguished faculty. Students can choose from two different program dates. Each program offers private lessons (piano, strings, voice), chamber music coaching, piano ensembles, orchestral sessions, instrumental and vocal ensemble master classes with celebrated faculty and visiting world leading artists. Solo and chamber music concerts will feature performances by students and faculty. Concerts take place in various historical concert halls in and outside Cremona area, including Cortie Federico II, Cremona Town Hall, Oiazzas Duomo and Marconi and Museo del Violina Antonio Stradivari.

Eligibility Requirements: Program open to undergraduate and graduate students with a 2.5/3.0 overall GPA or higher. (Exceptions to the 2.5/3.0 GPA requirements may be possible for undergraduate/graduate students with permission of Dr. Kofman.)
