Paris, France Exchange Program

Fall: September 8 - December 22, 2009

Spring: January 19 - May 14, 2010

Paris is the city of lights and the capital of France. This romantic city has numerous sights (the Eiffel Tower), museums (the Louvre), parks (Luxembourg gardens), bridges over the Seine, squares (Place de la Concorde) and cafes, and its street life. It is a city of culture, art, fashion, gastronomy and intellectual life.

Academic Program:

This exchange program is with the American Business School in Paris (www.absparis.org). FAU students can study overseas for a semester or academic year. Courses are available in Business, Humanities, and French Language. Courses are taught in English, except for the French Language courses. The American Business School Paris is IACBE (The International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education) accredited.

Enrollment is limited and priority is given to Business majors and minors.

FAU Study Abroad Application fee of $100.00 includes: Pre-departure orientation guidebook, International Student ID Card (including basic emergency medical, repatriation, evacuation insurance), and staff support.

Not Included in the Program: FAU tuition (paid to the Cashiers Office), housing (Assistance finding housing is provided), airfare, meals, spending money and local travel. Below is the estimated cost of living expenses/school fees per semester:

Orientation Program (mandatory)	360 €
Textbooks (estimate)	460 €
Housing including rent, utilities (estimate)	3324 €
Student Council Membership	93 €
Extra fees (Museum visits) for Art History &/or French Civilization	40 €

Deadline to Apply: October 15th for spring, and May 30th for fall.

Financial aid: Students may be able to use their financial aid for study abroad. The amount of the financial aid awarded and its availability will be determined by the Office of Financial Aid. A student needs to have a current FAFSA on file in order to apply for funding. If funding is awarded the student must go online and accept his/her award. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that all paperwork required by financial aid has been completed prior to their departure. Further, any student using financial aid must notify the Office of International Programs of their award and provide a copy of the award letter.
