Czech Republic, Prague
Anglo-American University Exchange Program

Prague has been a political, cultural and economic center of Europe, and particularly central Europe, during its 1,100 year existence. The extensive historic center of Prague has been included in the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites and is home to a number of famous cultural attractions including: Prague Castle, the Charles Bridge, Old Town Square, and the Jewish Quarter. Anglo-American University, a private university founded in 1990, prides itself on providing a personalized, distinctive education in English. AAU offers 17 fully accredited programs taught by Ivy League professors to more than 600 students from 60 countries. Located in beautiful baroque palaces in Prague's historic district, AAU has a comprehensive library, computer lab and WIFI available to students. For more information, visit www.aauni.edu.

Program Dates:
Fall 2016: August 24 to December 15, 2016
Spring 2017: February 2 to May 29, 2017

Eligibility: Currently enrolled at an accredited U.S. university in an undergraduate or graduate degree program, and have a 2.50 GPA for undergraduates and the GPA for masters students will be determined by the respective department.

Courses: Humanities, Social Sciences, Prague Art and Architecture, European History, Jewish Studies, International Relations, Diplomacy, Politics and Society, Business Administration, Czech Language, and Law. All courses are offered in English.

Accommodations: Assistance with finding housing is provided in cooperation with a long-established network of private landlords and real estate agencies. Double rooms approx 7,719 CZK/month; singles approx 10,500 CZK/month. Utilities approx 3,700 CZK/month (w/Internet) if not included. To view housing recommendations, please visit http://www.aauni.edu/admissions/accommodation/ and click on the links in red.

Estimated Program Costs: FAU application fee ($200 semester/$250 year), FAU tuition (in state/out of state rates apply), accommodations (7,718-10,500 CZK/mo), utilities (3,700 CZK/mo if not included), airfare, meals, CISI international insurance ($38/month), spending money, and local travel (260 CZK/month public transportation pass). To view the most current exchange rate, visit www.oanda.com. Note that the Czech Republic requires that student visa documents be translated into Czech, cost to do this will vary. Students will need up to 60 days for their visa to be processed.

Deadline to Apply:
Spring Semester – September 2; Fall Semester – April 2

For More Information, Contact: Tania Tucker, trtucker@fau.edu, 561-297-3227

Florida Atlantic University reserves the right to make changes with or without notice. Florida Atlantic University reserves the right to cancel a program due to low enrollment. No program substitutions are allowed.