Venice, Italy
Summer Term II
May 14 – June 25, 2016

Venice: “Queen of the Adriatic”, “City of Water,” the “Serenissima” (the most serene). Life in Venice is unique and out of this world—you can walk everywhere and only its beauty interferes with your thoughts. In Venice, you will be enchanted by the sound of your footsteps and reflections on its waters. In this program, students will study Italian language and the fascinating history of the city while deciphering its stones and landmarks. Students will tour some of the world’s most treasured sites outside of the tourist’s routes including a boat tour of the Venetian Villas along the Brenta Canal, a nature walk at 7,000 feet on the Dolomiti Mountains, and a boat tour of the smaller islands in the lagoon. Venice is located in a strategic position from which Florence, Rome, Vienna, Prague or Paris can be easily reached.
