COURSE DELIVERY MODE

This is a fully online course accessible only through FAU's learning management system, Canvas. You must log into Canvas with your FAU ID and Password to access the materials and assignments in this course. If you do not know your FAU ID or Password, contact OIT for help.

The course is organized into modules with due dates. Unless otherwise specified, each module begins on Monday and ends on Sunday at 11:59pm, EST. The course begins with the START HERE page, which will familiarize you with the organization and navigation of the course. You will open a new learning module to access the assigned reading materials, videos, presentations, and other relevant materials for each subsequent module.

SYNCHRONOUS MEETINGS VIA WEBEX

Since SCE 6644 is a seminar course, interaction with your classmates and instructor is vital to your success. I will host synchronous online chats MEETS for WebEx. I will consider the input of the group, to determine the dates and times of these mandatory meetings. Participation will be graded.

Further information is available in the in this syllabus, and within the Canvas course.

TIME COMMITMENT PER CREDIT HOUR

This course has three (3) credit hours. For traditionally delivered courses, not less than one (1) hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction each week for fifteen (15) weeks per Fall or Spring semester, and a minimum of two (2) hours of out-of-class student work for each credit hour.

COURSE ASSESSMENTS, ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING POLICY

GRADING CRITERIA

Introductions and Syllabus Quiz

(10 points possible each; Course Orientation category = 0% total course grade)

You will post an introduction in the student introductions discussion and take a syllabus quiz. You can take the syllabus quiz as many times as necessary to achieve 100%.

Synchronous Meetings via WebEx

(8 meetings, 100 points possible each; Participation category = 20% total course grade)

As stated above, SCE 6644 is a seminar course; interaction with your classmates and instructor is vital to your success. Your instructor will host synchronous online chats MEETS for WebEx. I will consider the input of the group, to determine the dates and times of these mandatory meetings. Participation will be graded.

Students are expected to attend all synchronous meetings via WebEx throughout the semester. Your instructor will contact you to schedule the synchronous meetings. Instructions for joining the WebEx meeting are provided in the Canvas course.

A link to the chat recording Your instructor will record the meetings, a link to the recording will be available after the synchronous meeting. If you are unable to attend the session, you are still responsible for viewing the recording. Instructions for viewing a WebEx Recorded Meeting are provided in the Canvas course. A scoring rubric is attached to each Canvas assignment page.

Note: The synchronous chat sessions will be recorded and shared to specific students in this seminar, for the sole purpose of facilitating valuable learner-to-learner and learner-to-instructor interaction. Neither students nor instructor have permission to share or publish the recorded chat sessions. The WebEx recorded sessions will automatically expire three months after they are created.

Discussions

(17 assignments, 100 points possible each; Discussions category = 20% total course grade)

As part of the course assignments, you will be asked to post an original submission to the discussion and reply to at least two other students' posts with a substantive response. A substantive response adds value to the discussion by bringing new ideas, research, evidence, etc. to the conversation. "I agree," "Ditto" and the like are not acceptable replies. The rules of Netiquette must be followed. Full sentences, proper spelling, source citations, etc., are expected.

Ensure that postings contain detailed responses to each question and that course and chapter contents are applied in your discussion responses. For example, consider taking a new approach in presenting chapter content, cite new examples, present external research (paraphrase, avoid unnecessary and/or lengthy quotations; do not plagiarize, cite references).

There are several unique assignments built into the Discussion format. For maximum points, be sure to read assignment instructions, and refer to the scoring rubrics attached to the assignment.

Reflections

(3 assignments, 100 points possible each; Assignments category = 20% total course grade)

You will be required to write a reflective essay in response to questions about course content. Scoring rubrics are attached to each assignment.

CITI Training: Human Subjects Research training course

(1 assignment, 100 points; Assignments category = 20% total course grade)

All FAU researchers conducting research that involves human subjects must complete the CITI online training. The Institutional Review Board (IRB) will not approve your application to conduct research involving human subjects if you have not completed this federally mandated training requirement. All information and links to lesson content are provided within the course.

Conference Summary

(1 assignment, 100 points; Discussions category = 20% total course grade)

If you have the resources, your instructor highly encourages you to attend the NAAEE 47th Annual Conference, Oct. 10-13 in Spokane, WA.

Whether you are able to attend or not, in Module 8, you will explore this year's conference information, and create a schedule for yourself. You will choose events, workshops, and speaker sessions, explain why you want to attend them, and what level of participation you would like to have in the future. Detailed instructions and a scoring rubric are attached to the Canvas assignment page.

Reading Synthesis

- 6 Research Article Critiques, 100 points possible each; Discussions category = 20% total course grade
- 6 Article Suggestions for upcoming modules, 100 points possible each; Discussions category = 20% total course grade
- 1 Final Reading Synthesis, 100 points; Final Projects category = 40% total course grade

Critiquing Educational Research is a major component of this course. In every module, you will research articles, suggest 2 for your colleagues to read in the next week's module, and explain why you think these articles will benefit the class.

The whole class will discuss these suggestions each week, either via Synchronous Meeting or Canvas Discussion. Based on this discussion, your instructor will select 2 or three articles and assign them to the class for the following week.

You will read and critique each assigned article, either via Synchronous Meeting or Canvas Discussion. Elements to include in your discussion about each article:

1. A point you found particularly interesting or notable about the article.
2. Something that you had trouble understanding.
3. Something you disagreed with or did not feel was justified.
4. A suggestion you would have made to the authors as an anonymous reviewer to make the paper better.

In Module 16, you will submit a Final Reading Synthesis to summarize the class readings and synthesize ideas. Be sure to include any changes you found notable that emerged from the class discussions. A rubric is attached to the Canvas assignment page.

Lesson Plan

- 4 Discussions, 100 points possible each; Discussions category = 20% total course grade
- Lesson Plan Assessment Tasks, 100 points possible; Assignments category = 20% total course grade
- Lesson Plan - Rough Draft, 100 points possible; Assignments category = 20% total course grade
- Lesson Plan - Final Draft, 100 points possible; Final Projects category = 20% total course grade

During Modules 3-11 of this course, you will design a detailed science or interdisciplinary lesson plan, applicable to your current Environmental Education setting. The exact structure of the lesson is up to you, but you must use the Understanding by Design framework, and incorporate the 8 tips and 10 components of a good science lesson.

Several scaffolded assignments are built into the course, to help design your Final Lesson Plan Project. Detailed instructions and rubrics are provided in the Canvas course.

To assist you, the assignments have real, practical due dates and times. Assignments will close within one hour of the stated due dates; late submissions will not be possible. Missing assignments will automatically earn 0 (zero) points. My goal is your success. Plan for difficulties and technical problems; submit assignments as early as possible.

If you are having trouble meeting due dates in the course, please reach out to your instructor as quickly as possible.

MAKE-UP POLICY FOR TESTS N/A

INCOMPLETE GRADE POLICY

The University policy states that a student who is passing a course, but has not completed all work due to exceptional circumstances, may, with consent of the instructor, temporarily receive a grade of incomplete (“I”). The assignment of the “I” grade is at the discretion of the instructor, but is allowed only if the student is passing the course.

COURSE POLICIES

CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY STATEMENT

Students at Florida Atlantic University should endeavor to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the University mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive to the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is unacceptable in the University community. Academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research, or self-expression. When students borrow ideas, wording, or organization from another source, they must acknowledge that fact in an appropriate manner. Plagiarism is the deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without identifying the source and trying to pass off such work as one's own. Any student who fails to give full credit for ideas or materials taken from another has plagiarized. This includes all discussion posts, journal entries, wikis, and other written and oral presentation assignments. If in doubt, cite your source.

ONLINE ATTENDANCE POLICY

Since the course is online, you should access the course at least three times per week to ensure you do not miss pertinent postings, messages, or announcements. It is imperative that you meet course deadlines and stay active in discussion boards, group projects, etc. If you are experiencing major illness, absences due to University duties, or other large-scale issues, contact the instructor immediately to formulate a resolution.

SPECIAL COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Synchronous Meetings via WebEx

NETIQUETTE

Due to the casual communication common in the online environment, students are sometimes tempted to relax their grammar, spelling, and/or professionalism. Please remember that you are adult students and professionals—your communication should be appropriate. For more in-depth information, please see the FAU statement on netiquette.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE/DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR POLICY STATEMENT

Disruptive behavior is defined in the FAU Student Code of Conduct as "... activities which interfere with the educational mission within classroom." Students who disrupt the educational experiences of other students and/or the instructor's course objectives in a face-to-face or online course are subject to disciplinary action. Such behavior impedes students' ability to learn or an instructor's ability to teach. Disruptive behavior may include, but is not limited to non-approved use of electronic devices (including cellular telephones); cursing or shouting at others in such a way as to be disruptive; or, other violations of an instructor's expectations for classroom conduct.

For more information, please see the FAU Office of Student Conduct.
