Participation and attendance: Our department observes a strict attendance policy. In order to meet the course goals and objectives, you must attend and actively participate in class. Participation is an important component of your final grade, and at each session I will take attendance. If you miss class, no participation points will be awarded for that day. There is NO make-up for participation, with the exception of the following, for which you will be awarded full participation for the day by providing proper documentation as soon as possible:

FAU/ChangeGrad—Revised May 2010
- University-recognized religious holy days*
- Jury duty and other court-related appearances
- Death in the family
- Doctor’s visits
- Prior approved and properly documented University-sponsored activities that demand your presence

*For religious holy days, students must speak with me prior to missing class in order to receive participation points. Notifications after the religious holy day will not be accepted.

It is important to attend class for the entire period. Excessive absences (more than one without an excuse) or arriving late or leaving early and/or the resistance to participate in class will result in a lower grade. Students should come prepared and having read all the assigned texts. Attendance cannot be made up. More than one unexcused absence will lower the course grade by one-half letter grade per additional absence.

Tardiness: Arriving late or leaving early at least two times will be counted as an absence.

Unannounced quizzes/handling of translations: there could be unannounced quizzes based on the assigned readings. Each day consists of a reading from the textbook plus articles on the same topic. It is essential that you read these selections before coming to class, even though you are not presenting. The assigned translations could also be collected without previous announcement.

Assignment Submission Policy:
LATE WORK: All assignments must be turned in at the beginning of class (not during or at the end). They will be accepted up to a week later, but with penalties. Tardiness includes turning in the paper right after class because of printer issues. It is your responsibility to have the papers ready for handing in at the beginning of class. Five (5) points for each late day will be taken off from the assigned grade (yes, I repeat, this includes turning it in right after class or during class because of printing problems), unless verifiable medical excuse and/or other suitable documents are provided in a timely manner. If you know in advance of any such reason, please let me know. No homework/assignments will be accepted via email.

Exams: There will be 1 exam containing questions from the theoretical readings studied in class as well as translation practice. Before the exam, I will describe the format of the exam. No make-ups, unless absence is documented.

Final Exam: In lieu of a final exam this class has a final paper.

Make-up policy for exams: As for the exams and the final, there is no make-up possibility. Exceptions include: documented medical reason, religious accommodation, an official FAU athletic commitment, death in the family, or court appearance. If you know in advance of any such reason, please let me know.

INCOMPLETES: Are reserved for students who are passing the course but have not completed all the required work because of exceptional circumstances.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE POLICIES

Cell Phones and Electronic Devices:
University Policy: “In order to enhance and maintain a productive atmosphere for education, personal communication devices, such as cellular telephones and pagers, are to be disabled in class sessions.” The use of cell phones and electronic devices is prohibited in class. All cell phones should be turned off before the start of class (not set on “vibrate,” but turned OFF). If you have a medical or family emergency and need to receive a call during class, you should inform your instructor before class. Students without authorization who use cell phones and electronic devices in class may be dismissed from class and counted as being absent for the day. In order that the University may notify students of a campus-wide emergency, either the instructor’s, or a designated student’s cell phone will be set to vibrate during class.

Student E-Mail Policy:
Effective August 1, 2004, FAU adopted the following policy:
“When contacting students via e-mail, the University will use only the student’s FAU e-mail address. This will ensure that e-mail messages from FAU administration and faculty can be sent to all students via a valid address. E-mail accounts are provided automatically for all students from the point of application to the University. The account will be disabled one year post-graduation or after three consecutive semesters of non-enrollment.”

E-mailing Your Instructor:
Please use your FAU account when e-mailing your instructor. If you use a personal e-mail account (e.g., hotmail, yahoo, g-mail, etc.) your instructor will not know whether the message is junk mail, and therefore, will not respond. FAU e-mail is considered by the university to be official communication, and you should therefore address your instructor appropriately (e.g., Dear Ms., Mr., Sr., etc.), sign your name, and use a respectful tone. Instructors will not respond to e-mails that do not address them directly, and/or are not signed, and/or are not sent from your official FAU e-mail address.

AMERICAN WITH DISABILITIES POLICY STATEMENT
In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), students who require special accommodation due to a disability to properly execute coursework must register with the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) – in Boca Raton, SU 133 (561-297-3880); in Davie, MOD 1 (954-236-1222); in Jupiter, SR 117 (561-799-8585); or at the Treasure Coast, CO 128 (772-873-3305) – and follow all OSD procedures. Bring a letter to your instructor from the OSD indicating that you need academic accommodations no later than the second week of classes.

In accordance with the OSD’s rules and regulations, students must turn in an Exam Sign-Up Sheet at least one week before the date on which each exam is scheduled. Please contact OSD for more information.

CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY STATEMENT
Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty, including cheating and plagiarism, is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the University mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the University community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see the Code of Academic Integrity in the University Regulations at http://www.fau.edu/regulations/chapter4/4.001_Code_of_Academic_Integrity.pdf.

Students are expected to uphold the Academic Honor Code. This includes the use of translator programs or having friends or family revise your assignments.

ALL assignments that you turn in to your instructor for a grade must be your own work. This means that excessive help from tutors or anyone else on graded assignments constitutes academic dishonesty. If your instructor suspects that an assignment completed outside of class is not entirely your own work, the case will be documented and appropriate disciplinary action will be applied as per the University’s Code of Academic Integrity.
If you are not sure about what constitutes plagiarism, please visit the following site created by the University of Southern Mississippi Library: http://www.lib.usm.edu/legacy/plag/plagiarismtutorial.php

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY ON ALL ASSIGNMENTS AND EXAMS IS GROUNDS FOR FAILURE IN THE COURSE.

By remaining enrolled in this course past the end of Drop/Add, you are agreeing to:

- uphold The Academic Honor System of Florida Atlantic University, and
- accept accountability for the course requirements, the course expectations, and the attendance policy stated in this document.
- attend the final exam which takes place as scheduled by the University.

Important Dates: Go to the following link to the FAU academic calendar to find important dates (i.e., drop add period, withdraw deadlines, etc.) http://www.fau.edu/registrar/acadcal.php
