COURSE DESCRIPTION: This graduate level course is a survey of opera literature in western history and culture. The course includes historical, musical, and dramaturgical analysis of opera literature from its origins through the Modern Era.

PRE-REQUISITE: Successful completion of the History entrance exam.

COURSE OBJECTIVE: The student will attain an understanding of the operatic repertoire. In addition, the students will understand the cultural and historical factors influencing the development of the art form as well as recognize the different styles and performance techniques in reference to eras and geographical regions. Through this course students will be able to accomplish the following competencies.

- To aurally identify operas by era, type, and composer as well as act and scene.
- To discuss/present, in class, assigned topics referencing the cultural, historical, and musical factors that influenced the development of opera.
- To identify the qualifications/characteristics that assist in the process of repertoire assignment and/or role casting.

REQUIRED TEXT

ADDITIONAL REQUIRED READING: Items will be posted on blackboard for reference or required from the Libraries Database.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:
- Research paper on an assigned opera
- Class presentation on an assigned topic regarding the transitional periods and development of the art
- Mid-term and final exams covering assigned readings and class discussions
- Listening mid-term and final exam
- Class attendance and punctuality

GRADING METHODS: Grades will reflect a combination of assessments of Attendance, Participation and Preparation, written exams, research paper, listening exams and In-class Presentations.

GRADING POLICY:
The following grading scale will determine the final grade.
- Research paper 30 %
- Class Presentations/Opera Attendance 20
- Mid-term written exam 15
Students must attend at least one (1) full-opera production and provide a program and short review of the performance. Format will be posted on Blackboard. Failure to do so will result in the loss of one full letter grade.

MAKE UP/ LATE WORK: Work will only be accepted late and/or tests will only be given as make-ups if proper documentation is provided. If a student is ill and not able to attend class for the exam, they must provide written documentation, on letterhead, from the hospital, clinic, or physician stating that they were not able to attend class. No make-ups will be given after one full week has expired and all work not turned in by the assigned date must be submitted within 36 hours with the proper documentation.

PLAGIARISM DETECTION: Each student is expected to complete his/her assignments and tests on their own. Any essays, including possible extra credit, that are submitted will be filtered through SafeAssign or TurnItIn. Papers with an originality report of more than 25% non-original material will be referred to the Dean’s office for review. Plagiarism may result in academic warning, or in extreme cases, expulsion. In addition, the paper will be considered failed and receive a grade of zero. In the case of a possible extra credit assignment, the amount that could have been added will be taken away from the final grade.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE:
- NO COMPUTERS OR CELL PHONES WILL PERMITTED IN CLASS. (Exception: SDA office requests for specific reasons)
- STUDENTS MUST HAVE THEIR BOOK AND NECESSARY MATERIALS IN CLASS. Students without course materials may be asked to leave class.
- Should a student be found in violation of this etiquette, they will be asked to leave class and take the absence.
- Cell phones should be turned off.
- Additionally, students are asked to sit in the chairs in a proper manner and keep feet from residing on other furniture.
- Out of courtesy to other students and to the professor, students are asked to arrive in a timely manner. Please note that two tardies constitutes one absence.

DISABILITY POLICY STATEMENT: In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), students who require reasonable accommodations due to a disability to properly execute coursework must register with the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) -- in Boca Raton, SU 133 (561-297-3880); in Davie, LA 240 (954-236-1222); in Jupiter, SR 110 (561-799-8010); or at the Treasure Coast, CO 117 (772-873-3441) -- and follow all OSD procedures. http://osd.fau.edu/

RELIGIOUS ACCOMMODATION:
- In accordance with rules of the Florida Board of Education and Florida law, students have the right to reasonable accommodations from the University in order to observe religious practices and beliefs with regard to admissions, registration, class attendance and the scheduling of examinations and work assignments.
- Students who wish to be excused from coursework, class activities, or examinations must notify the instructor in writing two weeks in advance of their intention to participate in religious observation and request an excused absence. The instructor will provide a reasonable opportunity to make up material from excused absences.
- Any student who feels aggrieved regarding religious accommodations may present a grievance to the director of Equal Opportunity Programs. Any such grievances will follow Florida Atlantic University's established grievance procedure regarding alleged discrimination. http://www.fau.edu/provost/files/religious2011.pdf

INCOMPLETE POLICY: A grade of Incomplete will be assigned only in the case of extreme emergency or illness. This grade will only be assigned when such a situation precludes the students' ability to complete the Final Performance. If such a situation should occur, the student should contact the instructor prior to the start of the performance and should be in EXTREME cases only. Should this occur, the student will be required to complete the course the next: time it is offered as no make up for a collaborative performance is possible or reasonable.

CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY STATEMENT: Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the university mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see http://wise.fau.edu/regulations/chapter4/Reg_4.001_5-26-10_FINAL.pdf
