MY EXPECTATIONS OF YOU (These items will figure into your final class grade.)

- Respect for the process: What may not seem to be “working” for you in the moment, may well work for you at a later time. Further, what may be not be working for you may be working for your colleagues. Stick with it.

- Ask questions: This work can be confusing. If you don’t understand something, ask questions! If you have a question chances are one or more of your colleagues have the same one. I truly believe (and so should you) that when it comes to this course THERE ARE NO STUPID QUESTIONS!!

- You are responsible for your own safety: If something feels unsafe to you either physically or emotionally, it is up to you to stop. Be kind to yourself. Beating yourself up because you don’t seem to be progressing as quickly as some of your colleagues serves no purpose and can slow your growth. Be patient with yourself and trust that you will grow. Celebrate your successes and those of your colleagues.

- Respect for your colleagues: Everyone experiences this work in their own way. “Breakthroughs” occur in many ways and in each performer’s time. You are free to discuss what happens to you in class, but in order to maintain a safe environment, I ask you to keep your colleagues’ experiences confidential. Further, I encourage you to support your colleagues in their work and to check your judgments at the door.

- A side note about respect: One of the most uncomfortable things I encounter each year is having to address personal hygiene. Actors work closely with each other and I will definitely be working close to you. PLEASE think twice before skipping that morning shower and/or deodorant. Just because no one says anything does not mean that no one’s noticing. Believe me, they ARE and they’re discussing it with me. I HATE having that conversation. Please see to it that I don’t have to have it with you.

- Feedback: I encourage and expect feedback from you regarding the work of your colleagues. I believe it encourages listening and furthers your ability to articulate the process. I would like you to keep in mind that voice work can be some of the most vulnerable work an actor performs as it is some of the most personal. Please keep that in mind when offering feedback. Please make it useful and constructive and refrain from issuing a “laundry list.” Make sure your offering is made in an attempt to help rather than to show how well you understand the material.

Touch: Some of the exercises in this class involve touch. I may touch you to assist you through an exercise (I will usually ask your permission before I touch you.) We will also be utilizing exercises that involve you touching your colleagues and their touching you. If you are asked to touch a colleague, you are to treat that colleague with the utmost respect. Any breach of this may result in your being dismissed from class and marked “Absent” for the day and/or permanent dismissal from the class. If at any time you do not want to be touched, you are free to refuse it. If this is a chronic issue for you, please discuss it with me as it is the rare actor who never touches or is touched on stage.

If you have Bi-Polar Disorder or Post Traumatic Stress Disorder: The floor work I typically utilize is Fitzmaurice Voicework® which involves a series of exercises called “tremoring.” It has been my experience that tremoring can set off a manic cycle for those with Bi-Polar Disorder and flashbacks for those with PTSD. If you are contending with either of these conditions, it is IMPERATIVE that you pay close attention to your responses to the work. There are other exercises that will substitute nicely should you find that troubling affects you adversely. If you would like to discuss this with me, it will remain confidential if you wish.

Students with Disabilities: In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), students who require special accommodation due to a disability to properly execute course work must register with the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) – in Boca Raton, SU 133 (561-297-3880); in Davie, MOD 1 (954-236-1222); in Jupiter, SR 117 (561-799-8585); or at the Treasure Coast, CO 128 (772-873-3305) – and follow all OSD procedures.

University Policy on Absences and Incompletes: Students will not be penalized for absences due to participation in University-approved activities, but proof of involvement must be provided. Reasonable accommodation will be made for student absences due to religious observance(s). Also, note that grades of Incomplete ("I") are reserved only for students who are passing the course but have not completed all the required work because of exceptional circumstances. Incompletes should be pre-arranged with the instructor before the end of the term.

The FAU Code of Academic Integrity: Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the University mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the University community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see the Code of Academic Integrity in the University Regulations: http://www.fau.edu/regulations/chapter4/4.001_Code_of_Academic_Integrity.pdf.
